AMBROSE1*LINEAGE CHART

MATHIAS(1) AMBROSE 1696-1784, m CATHERINE SPONGH 1711-1807.
 JOHN 'PHILIP'(2) AMBROSE 1734-1776, m EVA CATHERINE.
 HENRY(3) AMBROSE 1763-1845, m SOPHIA WEAVER 1769-1841.
 ELIZABETH(4) AMBROSE 1791-1856, m PHILIP CLINE 1786-1874.

MATHIAS(1) AMBROSE 1696-1784.

Mathias was born about 1696 in Germany. In 1732 he emigrated to America arriving at the port of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. According to the ship passenger list he was 37 years old and was on board the ship Pleasant. In 1733 he was married to 21 year old Catherine Spong. Catherine was born in Germany on December 15, 1711, the daughter of Adam Spong. They settled at Muddy Creek, in the Conestoga area of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Here their son John Philip was born in 1734 and was baptized by the Rev. John Casper Stover.

By 1739, Mathias and his family had moved to Frederick County, Maryland. He is listed among the early European settlers of the Upper Monocacy Valley, in the Backlands, north of present day Thurmont. In 1743 he received communion and was naturalized at the Monocacy Lutheran Church.

Mathias was a miller and a farmer and his mill, known as Ambrose Mill, the forerunner of Thurmont, was located on Owen's Creek. Ambrose Mill was a landmark and appeared on the land records from 1743 to 1759. In 1760 Mathias and his son Jacob and Jacob Mathias were the trustees for Jacob's, now Apple's Church. By 1763 Mathias had acquired over 700 acres in the Thurmont - Monocacy area.

Mathias died in 1784 and was interred at Apple's Church Cemetery. His will was written October 19, 1782 and probated October 16, 1784. He gave three pounds sterling to Jacob's Church and the remainder of his estate to his daughter Catherine and her husband John Weller, stating that the rest of his children had received their share.

Erected in Apple's Cemetery is a weathered tombstone with the following German inscription:- Mathys Ambroj / gebd 10 Feb / 1696 / Verfch d 10 Aug / 1784 / Alt 87 Jahr 6 M / Wen: 3 Tag. Mathias Ambrose / born 10 Feb / 1696 / Died 10 Aug / 1784 / Aged 87 Years 6 Months / and 3 Days.

Mathias and Catherine were the parents of 7 children:-

1. JOHN 'PHILIP' AMBROSE 1734-1776. Philip was born in 1734 at Muddy Creek, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. He was married to EVA CATHERINE and resided in Frederick County, Maryland.
2. Henry Ambrose was born October 13, 1736, and was baptised as Augustus Heinrich by the Rev. Stover at Muddy Creek on January 6, 1737. In 1759 he received 160 acres, a part of the tract Arnold's Chance, from his father Mathias Ambrose.

AMBROSE

3. Mathias Ambrose Jr. was born March 20, 1739, and was baptized by the Rev. Stover, at Monocacy on June 17, 1739. In 1759 he received 170 acres, a part of the tract Arnold's Chance, from his father Mathias Ambrose.
4. Johann Frederick Ambrose was baptized in 1741.
5. Maria Barbara Ambrose was born January 24, 1743 and baptized June 13, 1743 by the Rev. Chandler. In 1759 she received 170 acres, a part of Arnold's Chance, from her father Mathias Ambrose.
6. Catherine Salome Ambrose was married to John Weller Sr. In 1796, Catherine and some of her children moved to Nelson County, Kentucky.
7. Jacob Ambrose received the tract Gap, 100 acres, north of Thurmont, from his parents, Mathias and Catherine Ambrose.

JOHN 'PHILIP'(2) AMBROSE 1734-1776.

John Philip was born in 1734 at Muddy Creek, in the Conestoga area of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, the son of Mathias and Catherine Spongh Ambrose. His baptism was recorded in the records of the Rev. Stover as:- Joh. Philip Ambrosius, born Feb. 6, 1734, baptized May 12, 1734, at Muddy Creek, son of Matthias Ambrosius, sponsors, Philip and Susanna Schweikert.

He was known as Philip and resided at Arnold's Delight, north of Thurmont. Philip died in 1776 and the inventory of his estate was dated August 31, 1776 and his wife Catherine was the administratrix of his estate. He was probably interred at Apple's Church Cemetery.

Philip and his wife Eva Catherine were the parents of two known children:-

1. HENRY(3) AMBROSE 1763-1845. Henry was born in 1763 near Thurmont. He was married to SOPHIA WEAVER, 1769-1841. They resided near Ellerton, Frederick County, Maryland and were interred at St. John's Lutheran Cemetery.
2. Maria Barbara Ambrose was born June 14, 1773, and was baptized July 21, 1773 at Apple's Church, the daughter of Philip and Eva Catherine Ambrose.

HENRY(3) AMBROSE 1763-1845.

Henry was born about 1763 near Thurmont, the son of Philip and Eva Catherine Ambrose. He followed the trade of his grandfather, Mathias, and was a farmer and miller.

There were several Henry Ambroses listed in the Maryland census from 1790 to 1840 who were residents of Frederick County. They were most likely related and descended from Mathias. Henry was listed in the Frederick County Assessment on land in Lower and Middle Kittoctin Hundred. He is listed as Henry Ambrozer of Philip, holding the patent to two tracts called Neighbors Content of 68 acres and Stephen's Hope of 133 acres.

Henry and his wife Sophia Weaver were members of the Lutheran Church and their names appear in the records of Middletown Zion and later in St. John's Lutheran Church at Ellerton. They were

MARY(2) BOARMAN c 1660-1716, m c 1679, ROBERT GREENE.

WILLIAM(1) BOARMAN 1625-1686.

The Boarmen family of Maryland is of English descent and they originated from Devonshire and Somersetshire, England. The Maryland Boarmans share the same family crest as the Boarmans of Wells, England.

William Boarmen was born about 1625 in England, the son of William Bourman of Brooke and his wife Barbara Worsley. He was brought into the Province of Maryland at the time of the civil war in England by Captain Giles Brent. He resided with the Jesuit priests at Port Tobacco where he received a catholic education. During the 1645 Revolution he was among those captured by adherents of Richard Ingle and taken prisoner to St. Mary's City. By 1651 he was employed by Giles Brent on Kent Island.

William's home plantation in St. Mary's County was known as Kitt Martins Point, which he sold in 1663 to James Jolly, an inn keeper of St. Mary's for 15,000 pounds of tobacco. Of this sum, half was to paid in St. Mary's County and the other half in Charles County.

In the 1660's William's land speculation included several large tracts in Charles County. By 1676 these holdings were consolidated into Boarmen's Manor. The Manor extended several miles on both sides of Zachiah Swamp with the northern most part at present day Bryantown and included almost 4,000 acres.

In 1678 William gave to his daughter Sarah Mudd, 450 acres of Hall's Place, which adjoined her brother-in-law Robert Greene's, on the north side of Green's Run into Zachiah Swamp. In 1679 William gave to his daughter Mary Green, Green's Rest which may be the same as George's Rest. Robert Green's land is listed as a reference in William Boarmen's will of 1709 as being a part of George's Rest. In 1755 Thomas Jameson requested boundaries on Hall's Rest and George's Rest be proved. Joseph Jameson referred to a dividing tree between the land of Mrs. Mudd and Mrs. Green, the two sisters and daughters of Major William Boarmen.

The following section has a variety of information. The Beckelhymers definitely lived in Virginia. Ralph Behymer of Cincinnati, Ohio has found land surveys and transactions of the family in Botetourt, Franklin, and Montgomery Counties, Virginia. Other Virginia counties have not been researched.

Col. Nathaniel Lucas of Virginia received land in Clermont County, Ohio for his service in the army during the Revolutionary War. Some of the Beckelhymers bought land from him and moved to Clermont. The ones who settled first in Pierce Township immediately used the surname, Behymer. James and Aaron Beckelhymers who settled in Washington Township seemed to use the surname, Beckelhymers, right upto the Civil War time. Probably James and Aaron were cousins to the Behymers in Pierce Township but no connection has been made.

There are many land transactions and marriages in Clermont County records of the family. They had large families. Lots of Behymers can be found in the Clermont County censuses. Though by 1900 there were fewer, many having moved on to other parts of the United States. Today the names found in Clermont County are Behymer, Beckelheimer, Beckelhimer and Beckelhymers.

June 8, 1788 - Jacob  appointed surveyor of the road, succeeding Geo. Booth

After many years the true beginning of the family has been lost with different versions given. Perhaps there is an element of truth in each story.

Anna Beckelhymer, widow of John Beckelhymer, applied for bounty land supposedly due him for service in the War of 1812. It also states that Levi B'Hymer and Martin B'Hymer were in the same company. The papers were witnessed by Jesse Beckelhymer and Rebeckah Beckelshymer.

The Behymers settled in Ten Mile and Locust Corner in Ohio and Pierce Townships of Clermont County, Ohio. In 1826 the following owned land that had originally been Nathaniel Lucas: Joseph, Nathaniel, Barbary, John, Samuel, William, Jacob, Daniel and Joel Behymer.

Most of this information is from Ralph Behymer of Cincinnati, Ohio who has researched and corresponded with many people for a number of years. This is ONLY a brief outline of the Beckelhymers and Behymers in their early years in Virginia and Clermont County, Ohio.

PIONEERS

Somewhere about eighty years ago there lived a family in Montgomery county, Virginia, named Pickelheimer. This family consisted of the parents and eleven children - nine sons and two daughters. The nine sons moved from Virginia to Pierce Township in this county in 1818. The sisters remained in Virginia, where some of their descendants now live. The names of the brothers, who live within three miles of each other, were John, who was married and was the father of six children, Samuel, with eight children, Nathaniel, with eight children, Joseph, with four children, Jacob, with eight children, Solomon Behymer, five children, Daniel, married, but no children. Jonathan became a Mormon, and nothing is known of his history. Joe, the ninth son, was the father of the following named well known people; Michael, now more than 80 years old; Henry, Benjamin and Even, and daughters, Elizabeth, Mary, Nancy, Susannah, Lydia and Melinda. One of the sisters of the old stock, Ann Behymer, married John Beckett, and is now the grandmother of Solomon Beckett living at Centerville, Batavia township. Her family consisted of Samuel, John, and William, and daughters, Elizabeth and Ann. The other daughter, Elizabeth, married Henry Wagoner, and her children were John, recently a resident of Locust Corner, Henry and Ann. The family name, Pickleheimer, was changed a short time after the arrival of the family in Clermont, to Behymer. The family is probably the oldest in the county, and its offspring are found in all branches of business and occupations, and are very numerous.

John Behymer, the eldest of a large family of this name, came from Virginia in 1805, and settled on Ten Mile Creek, his home place being now occupied by Maj. Ricker's family, where he resided until his death. Of his family was Jacob Behymer, who improved the farm now owned by John Behymer, and other sons were Elias and Daniel Behymer, yet living in Pierce. Jonathan Behymer, a brother of John, removed to the West after having lived a number of years in the township. A third brother, Daniel, lived on the farm now occupied by Elias Behymer. Solomon Behymer, the fourth of the brothers settled in the northern part of Pierce, and members of his family yet remain in the township. Joel Behymer was born in 1789, and lived north of the central part of Pierce. He died in January, 1876, leaving 10 children, 44 grandchildren, and 21 great-grandchildren. Other members of this numerous family were Joseph, Samuel, Nathaniel, and Enoch, and the descendants at one time constituted a large proportion of the population of Pierce. Samuel Beckett, a nephew of the Behymers, came to Pierce in 1815, but returning to Virginia, remained in that State ten years, when he again took up his abode in Pierce, living there at the age of eighty-six years, and being one of the oldest men in the township.

Methodist Episcopal Church, and Baptist Church, both of which are located on the east side of the township. The Methodist Episcopal Church, No. 437, F. and A.M. of Withamsville. Mr. Behymer's farm embraces one hundred and eighty acres of rich land near Pleasant Hill, and is one of the best neighborhoods of the county. He is an excellent farmer and pays special attention to the cultivation of berries, which production is more profitable to the producer, and is attended with less expense labor, than the generality of farm products. His farm lies some two and a half miles from the Ohio River, and near the New Richmond Branch of the Cincinnati and Eastern Narrow-Gauge Railroad, and may justly be ranked one of the best in Clermont. Mr. Behymer has won the confidence and respect of his fellow-citizens by his life of industry, integrity, and fair dealings, and in all public enterprises and movements for the general good of society he is ever to be found in the foreground. His elegant residence, with handsome surroundings, is on Pleasant Hill, midway between Ricker's Hill on the east and Roper's Hill on the west.

MICHAEL BEHYMER

Michael Behymer was born May 8, 1812, in what is now Pierce Township, and was the son of Joe and Eve (France) Behymer, who were early settlers on Nine-Mile Creek. His grandfather, John Behymer, was one of the earliest pioneers, having located before the year 1800 in the county, then a part of Hamilton.

Joel Behymer had four sons - Henry, Eben, Benjamin, and Michael -- and six daughters: Elizabeth, married to James Robb; Mary, to William Arthur; Nancy, to John Robb; Susan, to William Nash; Lydia, to Thomas Heron and Malinda, to Wilson Thompson Gray.

Michael Behymer was married on Nov. 5, 1835, by N. E. Walton, justice of peace of Ohio township, to Mary Ann Archer, daughter of Chapman and Sophia (Behymer) Archer. The spring following his marriage he moved to the farm on which he now resides, and which has been his home ever since. Their children have been Benjamin, who died in infancy; Cassie, married to John R. Woodlief, Esq., ex-sheriff of the county and a prominent member of the Clermont bar; George W., married to Belle Riley; Madison, who died in infancy; Chapman killed in 1862 by a kick from a horse; Flora, married to Jasper, son of Hiram D. Tone; Bennett and Edgar, both unmarried, and living at home.

Mr. Behymer and wife are both zealous members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the three sons, George W., Bennett, and Edgar, belong to the J.B. Covert Lodge, No. 437, F. and A.M. of Withamsville. Mr. Behymer's farm embraces one hundred and eighty-seven acres of rich land near Pleasant Hill, and is in one of the best neighborhoods of the county. He is an excellent farmer and pays special attention to the cultivation of berries, which production is more profitable to the producer, and is attended with less severe labor, than the generality of farm products. His farm lies some two and a half miles from the Ohio River, and near the New Richmond branch of the Cincinnati and Eastern Narrow-Gauge Railroad, and may justly be ranked one of the best in Clermont. Mr. Behymer has won the confidence and respect of his fellow-citizens by his life of industry, integrity, and fair dealing; and in all public enterprises and movements for the general good of society he is ever to be found in the foreground. His elegant residence, with handsome surroundings, is on Pleasant Hill, midway between Donham's Hill on the east and Hopper's Hill on the west.

W.J. Behymer, undertaker and proprietor of livery stables at Madisonville and Norwood, was born at Locust Corner, Clermont Co., Ohio, January 13, 1842, son of Benjamin and Fannie (Nash) Behymer. His father was born March 28, 1821, his mother on March 20, 1823, both in Clermont county. Benjamin Behymer's parents were Joel and Eve Behymer, who came from Pennsylvania while the Indians were still here, and died in Clermont county. Benjamin followed farming in his native county until about 1877, when failing health compelled him to relinquish rural pursuits and seek retirement, since which time he and his wife have resided with their son W.J. Their union was blessed with two children: W.J. and E.B., who was foreman in the Madisonville livery stables at the time of his death, July 11, 1893. Mr. Behymer served as a justice of peace in Clermont county several years; held the office of director of the County Infirmary, and was member of the Clermont County Agricultural Society many years. He and his wife are consistent members of the Baptist Church, in which he has been for many years, and is now, a deacon.

W.J. Behymer was educated in the common schools of his native county, and has been successively employed in tobacco manufacture, as merchant and as undertaker. On August 11, 1862, he enlisted in the Eighty-ninth O.V.I. as corporal of Company B. and was subsequently promoted to orderly sergeant. His first service was with the troops thrown across the Ohio to meet Gen. Kirby Smith. In 1862 he was in active service in the Kanawha Valley, West Virginia, and in the battles of the Army of the Cumberland at Fort Donelson, Nashville, Carthage, Murfreesboro, Chattanooga and Chickamauga. At the last name place he was taken prisoner September 20, 1863, and during the next fifteen months was successively confined at Ringgold, Ga.; Belle Isle, Va.; Libby Prison, Danville, Va.; Andersonville, Ga.; Charlestown, S.C., and then again at Florence and Charleston, where he was paroled and sent to Annapolis. He was then furloughed, and finally discharged at Columbus, Ohio, about the time of Lee's surrender in 1865.

On October 5, 1865, Mr. Behymer married Anna L. Hatfield, who was born March 15, 1844, daughter of Col. J.D. and Elizabeth (Crossley) Hatfield. By this marriage there is one child, Frank A., in partnership with his father and having charge of the Norwood stables. Mr. Behymer is a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and of Blue Lodge, F. & A.M., Madisonville, No. 419, Kilwinning Chapter, No. 97, and Hanselman Commandery, No. 16, also to the Mystic Shrine, Syrian Temple; he is a member and has been commander of H.B. Banning Post G.A.R.F., Madisonville. He has served as president of the State Association of Ex-Prisoners of War for two years, and was president of the Regimental Association of the Eighty-ninth Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Mr. Behymer rendered valuable services to the Hamilton County Agricultural Board for eight years, and is now a worthy member of Madisonville Council. He became connected with the Madisonville Building and Loan Association No. 2, in 1877, becoming an officer at the time, and has served ever since. He and his wife belong to the Baptist Church.

from the History of Cincinnati and Hamilton County, Cincinnati, Ohio, S.B. Nelson Publishing, 1894, page 942

Mr. Behymer was born in 1837, when he went to Peoria, Ill., where he was employed by one of the leading undertakers of that city, with whom he remained several years. In 1861, he began experimenting with chemicals for preserving the human body, discovering a process which he has continued perfecting, until he now has a complete embalming system. He came to Denver in 1875, and for about two years was employed in some of the leading furniture establishments of this city, after which he began the undertaking and embalming business on Larimer street, in which, with Mr. E. P. McGovern, he is still engaged. His reputation in his particular line is too well known to require comment here.

H.M. BEHYMER

This gentleman is an example illustrative of what perserving industry and determination will accomplish. Receiving none of the training of the schools, he has, nevertheless, by his own exertions, mastered all the common branches of an English education, and has a fair knowledge of history and the classics. He was born in Clermont County, Ohio, May 31, 1837. At an early age, he learned the cabinet maker's trade, at which he worked until 1857, when he went to Peoria, Ill., and was employed by one of the leading undertakers of that city, with whom he remained several years. In 1861, he began experimenting with chemicals, for preserving the human body, discovering a process which he has continued perfecting, until he now has a complete embalming system. He came to Denver in 1875, and for about two years was employed in some of the leading furniture establishments of this city, after which he began the undertaking and embalming business, on Larimer street, in which, with Mr. E. P. McGovern, he is still engaged. His reputation in his particular line is too well known to require comment here.

Samuel Behymer was born in Botetourt Co., Virginia in 1763 - south of Fincastle, the County Seat, 12 miles - and was educated in the Dutch schools and married Catherine Logan. William, John, Anna, Jane and Elizabeth were the children of this union. Father emigrated from the old Virginia house in 1801, to the new home in Clermont Co., Ohio. Bought 2004 acres of wild forest land of Col. Lucas before starting west - after arriving late in the fall of the year, built a log house - Built saw and grist mill on Ten Mile Creek, a stream running through middle of farm. Father's second wife, my mother - Mary Parvin, was born near Trenton, N.J. and to this union were born Samuel, Lewis, James, Riley, Findley, Aaron, Henry.

Samuel Behymer's parents were emigrants to Virginia from the River Sheldt, Holland in about the year 1750 and were people of importance and prominent in their community, living near where the Gronogen Fort - where the military fort now stands and the training school is now kept by the authorities of Holland and at the time of their emigrating was governed and trained and kept by Pompelay, then military governor of Holland. Samuel Behymer father's name was Jonathan - and landed in Virginia and first settled near Jamestown Va. - moved from Jamestown to Botetourt Co., made mills and a beautiful home in beautiful Blue Ridge mountains - the mills were on tributary streams of the James River. He was a good millwright and learned all his sons to build all kinds of water power mill and they built many mills for other parties living in the Blue Ridge mountains.

Here in this new home my father was born in 1763 and Jacob, Nathaniel, Joseph (later changed to John), Enos & David & Anna - all moved to Ohio except David & Anna - who always remained in the old Virginia home. In 1801 Father exchanged and sold his Virginia farm and mill to a neighbor - Col. Lucas, who was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and had received wild land from the government for his pay for his service. And this new land and forest no white man had ever yet struck an ax in it yet, 16 miles above Cincinnati. Father, Jacob and Nathaniel and their wives all emigrated to this new home, starting in early spring, each having a span of horses and wagons each, came together to this new home in part making roads and bridging the streams through the wild woods and late in fall, they safely arrived at the end of the long journey, ready to commence life where Dan'l Boon & Simon Kenton blazed the way with gun and courage in the new territory. And the three brothers now divided the land - Father took 878 acres on lower Ten Mile, Nathaniel taking his part on upper Ten Mile and Jacob took the Locust Corner of East Pleasant Hill. Part this land was heavily timbered giant poplars, oak, ash, walnut, hickory, beech and charming sugar trees which were held in high esteem and tapped and in early springtime the roar of the fire and furnace could be seen away in the night and the mothers had pancakes and hot biscuits and sugar tree molasses that beat the band.

Oh the charming tough lumps and the fine grained sugar and big sweet stir off we had and golden taffy parties - Oh twas a sweet comeing together those days - we young folks had a grand a charming time - we were brim full of life and vim and the whole country teemed with a new life - life was sweet and our coming together was earnest real

Jacob Behymer's family

John, Daniel, Adam, Elias and Solomon were all earnest thrifty farmers. Solomon was a fine blacksmith and now living near Griggsville, Ill. - for a long time has farmed

Nathaniel Behymer's family

Dr. Thomas Behymer, Lewis, Daniel,
Simeon, Nancy & Nathaniel. Daniel and Simeon were very fine carpenters and contractors in Cincinnati, moving to Indianapolis and made beautiful homes there and raised fine educated families - many of their children are teachers and educators in the city schools. Nathaniel was a good millwright and made a saw & grist mill on south fork of upper Ten Mile opposite the brick home where Joseph Windsor lived, and his home was where the turnpike makes the curve leaving the creek ascending John Donhams hill - and he was a very good Dutch & English schollar and often when I was a lad I remember of him come often to our house and Father and him would read and translate from the Dutch bibles and tell us the meaning in English. I remember these 3 brothers very well - they were all 6 ft. high straight as Indians and clever clear clean conscientious good citizens.

John (corrected from Joseph) Behymer family

John Behymer lived
south of Esq Wagners old mill just across the creek and farmed and cleared away the forest and made a new home. One daughter married Edq Chapman Archer - one married Christian Custard - one married Thomas Littleton and in the year 1812 he died and green blue grass pasture, sloping toward the south, overlooking his old home, he is sleeping, and his tombstone is marked

Gabriel Archer:

Emigrated from England in about the year 1604 and was of pure English stock and there was quite a settlement of descendants of his around Archers Hope when Chapman Archer came from there and settled in Clermont Co. Ohio. Chapman Archer was a fine man and did all he could to develop the new country in every manner and many good word I heard of him and his wife in their sunny home

Benjamin Archer:

Was born on the farm Oct 15th, 1815, was given a good common school education and was a fine student in mathematics - he led the whole school and was easily the foremost scholar in mathematics. He married Keziah Sargent, daughter of James Sargent, Dec. 23, 1841. The marriage ceremony was done nicely by hitting B. Bancock, an old settler and a very faithful and zealous Baptist minister of First Ten Mile church. Mr. Benjamin Archer often filled important township and County offices. In 1857 was County Treasurer, which he efficiently and honestly filled for 2 years. He was among our largest and best farmers and with rare taste and skill he tilled his farm and built his fine home in 1859. Brother Findley Behymer of Shelbyville, Illinois, came and built it for him. All around him showed there was a careful brainy masterful management in every part of farm. He was first to encourage the steady, plodding Ger.... settle in the sunny hills and plant vineyards and make wine and as many as ten families on his lands - and had one of the best wine cellars in the County - He died on the farm he loved so well in April 1874, 59 years old in manhoods prime. He did not belong to any church but he gave liberally to the support of all in his neighborhood, was a man of high honor and splendid character and was endowed with fine social and domestic qualities and his merry laughter and his ready wit and to entertain his friends was always on tap every where and it all times was very cheerful with all. Benjamin Archer was a member of Ind Order of Oddfellows Milton Lodge of Amelia and to him largely is due fine prosperity of the lodge - his zeal and fraternal care was greatly felt in the lodge - and he was one of projectors and managers of the beautiful Cemetary at Amelia and to him is due its cultivated and charming taste. And I often met him at County fairs and to them he gave warm support and encouragement - no man in Clermont County stood higher in the estimation of the people than Honest Ben Chapman. (Note: His name must be Ben Chapman Archer I remember him often coming to my fathers and have a fine hour in the home - Chapman Archers

Benjamin:

The daughters married Alfred West, Ezekial Lewis, Edwin Morin, Michael Behymer, Richard Ayers

Michael Behymer

Was married Nov. 5 1835 to Mary Ann Archer (daughter of Esq Chapman Archer & Sophia Behymer - moved to farm the following spring and was a very prominent farmer, a good M.E. Church member, a friend to church and schools and a fine citizen. Cassie-John Woodlief of Batavia, George W - Belle Riley, Flora - Jasper Tone, Bennet - Mip Nash and Edgar. I remember when a lad I used to help Mike and Ann in harvest and help thrash the grain and they had the very best in the neighborhood and they were a very live pair and abreast of the times in every way in there well managed home they was truly a success

My father Samuel, Nathaniel and Joseph (changed to John) were all very fine mechanics and millwrights and could make mill wheels of great speed and power - and each made mills on Ten Mile creek and father made mills for Gen'rl Jim Taylor on the Licking River Ky. and while visiting the Behymers at Morning View, 30 miles southeast of Cincinnati I was there shown the old mill sight on the Gen. Taylor farm on the Licking River and I looked with a keen interest on the old mill site and down in the deep well where father was drinking a century ago-and the wild deer and bear and wild turkeys were very plentiful and father was a sure shot and many a tale he told of his success killing wild game in the sunny hills of Ohio and Ky. And while at Morning View my relatives planned to take me to a mill on Bear Grass creek which father built for Joseph Cox still grinding 8 months of the year, but it was a rainy day and I was prevented from the pleasure of seeing the mill

THE FAMILY TREE OF THE ARCHERS

The settlement of Chapman Archer on Ten Mile Creek was made in a very early day and I was informed by some folks that he was of Irish descent and emigrated from Virginia the beginning of the 18th century, but I differ with this view as to his nationality (ancestor's). Archer is an English name and is very common in north part of England. Gabriel Archer emigrated from England and located in Virginia at Archers Hope and was the first of this old English family known to have settled in America. From his descendants in this line was Chapman Archer who was among the very first pioneers of Clermont Co and came to Ohio not later than 1797 and settled in Pierce Township and cleared away the forest and made a welcome home for all who came his way and was many years a leading magistrate.

Joel, Solomon and Martin were brothers. Solomon lived in the northern part of Pierce Township and was a farmer. Daniel, Joseph and Samuel were children of Solomon. that I remember when I was a lad - they were grown men as I remember them - Dan'l and Joseph were feeble in intellect and made their home among strangers, changing places very frequent. Then Joel, Solomon and Martin emigrated from Virginia Joel secured the farm he always resided on Solomon his home in Northern Pierce. Martin choose Ten Mile Creek, Ky. Of his family I remember Thomas, Leroy and Sarah - Leroy was a strong man - perhaps the strongest of all the Behymers. At the fairs in Ky. he was by odds the greatest lifter on the test scales - none at the fairs could register his lifting powers - their capacity would not be great enough to register his lifting powers. Olover Behymer living at Morning View, Ky was the finest all around specimen of manhood I every have known. I have known him to crib an 100 bushels of corn in one day. I have known him to cut, split and cord 3 cords of wood in one day - could out run in footrace every one at the musters and hop and jumping he was a clipper and at the great woodchopping he was the greatest champion - at the shooting matches he won 15 turkies of the 16 put up and his Brother Freeman won it also and ever after they ruled him off the shooting board - with the sickle, the scythe, the cradle he was the smartest of all - he had the courage to dare to do and excel in all things. And I remember the Amelia lodge and the Withamsville lodges made a proposition to have a day to hunt game rabbit and quail and the lodge that killed the least pay for all and Olover Behymer belonged to Amelia lodge - and on the great hunting day Olover killed more game than all Withamsville lodge. As a fisherman to he is a great success - in 24 hours he caught and afterward sold in Cincinnati market, $30.00 fish with hooks and trot lines near New Richmond. Now 83 years of age and yet hale active and a very garry specimen of manly manhood. I loved him as a dear brother.

THE OLD BEHYMERS were ardent believers in a great and good God - a kind Heavenly Father. The names of their children teach us this. All the menfolks name are Bible names - Joel, Samuel, Jacob, Nathaniel, Daniel, Joseph, John, Simeon, Aaron, David, Enoch, Thomas, Benjamin, Michael, Solomon, Luke and Mark - All Bible names.

Perhaps it may give you a better or more complete history of the pioneer Behymers moving from Virginia to the Great wild new West, to now give you part of my poem that I recited at our reunion at my Brother Sam's birthday 3 years ago and I was congratulated by many for its breezy makeup

We first camped on the beautiful Chinch River
Natures Grand Amphitheater around
In forests of wonderful beauty
Wild game of every specie is found

We next camped on charming Holsten
Onward, Westward - our motto each day
No callers at morn, noon or nighttime
To enliven our camp by the way

Tis June and we're camping and dining
Well up the Alleghaney's steep sides
Tomorrow we'll dine on the summit
Of the Eastern and Great Western divide

Then onward, westward through Old Kentucky
At Cincinnati we ferry our teams
Tomorrow we'll dine in Clermont County
By the side of charming silver stream

(This is a repeat - part of a poem, "Tis Sweet Springtime"

(this part is from a letter)

Cousin, I had planned to see you and square matters with you last summer when I was visiting Cincinnati, Newport and Covington, a great fine bunch of relatives living from the Little Miami to the Big Miami. I wanted to see Cassie too and George but I procrastinated, delayed, hesitated and old time just fairly galloped along each day each week and I did not get time to see only just a few of the great hosts of people that I had on my list.

I was not surprised to receive your letter. Many times other parties have inquired of me to tell them all I could of their past history. Last summer a minister at Quincy, Ill. wrote me and said his name was Beckelheimer and wanted me to help him find the proper and right lineage and name of his stock. I ask him in an answer to tell me his history, his parents, who they were, where from and I would try and help him all I could but he never answered me. My father talked a great deal of his old home in Virginia and of his father and mother and those that emigrated with him to Ohio and they came a few families each year until almost all the numerous families living in the Blue Ridge mountains had emigrated with him to Ohio or a part of each family. Tis true I have in the past few years visited a great many of my relatives and with them talked of our family history and I have given them all the data I had in store about our ancestors in Virginia. And my next door neighbor here living by me is an Englishman and wealthy and traveled a great deal, and his home was in North England and born there and he knowed many people of the Archer name, and he traveled through Holland, and the Sheldt River and near Fort Gronegen and near the fort on a farm. Our ancestors were born and raised and schooled in a Dutch school - as to whether they are "high or low Dutch" I cannot tell you - if our name was then Beckelheimer and yankified after landing in America - I have found no one yet able to tell me when and where the change of our name was made or who did it. And cousin, I hinted in your letter that the Behymers were truly a great people - I remember all the Behymers that I have named to you here except Enos and John. Enos moved west long before I could remember or about the time I was born and (Joseph) John died in 1812 but everyone else I remember them all except Esq Chapman Archer - and when the gold fever was on and there was a great rush to the gold fields of California, Mr. Ben grub steaked 2 men who lived there on his farm and they came to our gold fields and mined for gold giving Mr. Archer half and Mr. Ben Archer came to me, I was a boy then 14 years old and hired me to plow corn and help in their crops. They were leaving to go to the gold fields and I was always a friend to him and when I married and commenced a home, he and wife visited and I learned much of their family history. And Jack Archer came and learned the carpenter and building and contracting and architecture with I and my Br. Findley at Shelbyville, Ill., and for 3 years Jack Archer was with us and we are well posted of the Archers in America. Tis true I have been away 20 odd years and know but little of the recent happenings and know little of the younger folks but of those I mention I was very well acquainted with them.

And now cousin if I have told you anything to help you know more of your ancestors, your family history and your folks and the Archers and their emigrating to America and then a part of them emigrating to Clermont Co. if I have helped you too in the poems, if there is a line or word or thought to interest you and your people, I shall feel amply paid.

Cousin plan for Cassie and Mr. Woodlief to read this and George and Bennet and Jasper Tone and Mrs. Jim Duckwall. And I would be pleased for Mrs. Joe Short to read this too. I know she would be delighted to know all she can of her people.

The little poems are all my own goods. I write them between meals, on the roads, in the fields, in the forest, on the mountains by the side of Old Ocean and I have many books of them. Some of the books are written very beautiful and are prized very high.

With bundles of the choicest, sweetest regards to you and wife and family, I want to always be remembered as your dear cousin

ASB (Aaron S Behymer)

(part of this seems to be missing - it just starts out as this - no title)

At the great wood chopping and corn huskings in valley and hill
Sam was always a racing with Joe and Bill
There was no time to look at the earth or sky
Twas exciting and wonderful to see Sam's chips fly
In the field, in the forest, in valley and hill
Sam's whiffletree was always ahead of Joe and Bill

When I lived at Captain Wagner's after school one day
Sam and family came passing in his sleigh
Brother for one minutes ride in our sleigh come in
Passed White Oak, Amelia, Bantam, Bethel, Thompson's Inn
There was sweet music and charming dancing within
I was at school on time on the brew of the hill
Sam (or saw?) a thousand happy hours you planned for Joe and Bill

Stories of the Behymers

My father was very much attached to his brother, David, and many a tale he told of Dave's pranks - such as pretending to be able to read people's palms etc; and was having quite a time by hiding implements such as plows, axes, and mauls, that men would leave in the fields when they went in for dinner; and then they would come to Dave and he would tell them where the implement was and how Dave was getting quite a reputation until his horse ran away with a neighbors gate that it was tied to and the final consequence was Dave's finish as a fortune teller. He was 17 or 18 years old at this time. Capt. John Wagner and Thomas Littleton returned to Virginia for a visit to their old home later on, and they returned with a good word for Dave. They found him a good, square man who had sown all his wild oats, and was a good citizen. This was 75 years ago and they rode horseback through Kentucky, up the Kanawa River, over the Greenbriar into Va.

TEDDY WILL DO IT FOR YOU

If you have a very tough proposition
And you can't quite see your way
Take that proposition up to Teddy
Who lived o'er at Oyster Bay
And he will do it for you
Aye, he'll do it right away

If you want to fight a great battle
That cost a million yet
And maimed, and hurt, and killed,
More than a million men
If Kings and Kizers, Clowns and Lords
Have done their very best
And still this awful war drags on
And the nations have no rest
Take our proposition up to Teddy
Who lived o'er at Oyster Bay
And he'll do it for you
Aye he 'll fixt it right away

If you want to stop a great coal strike
Or put grafters in the pen
Or a set of wicked senators
Joined up like little men
If ladies run to style and fashion
And their waist and health diminish
Until our whole entire race
Is coming to a speedy finish
Take your proposition up to Teddy
And have no further care
And he will do it for you
Aye, he'll do it on the square

Teddy's fame has gone to the farthest east
O'er the ocean and sea and Stran
All the wide world is shouting peace
Made by our Teddy brave fearless man
Will Teddy be elected again,
Ask the stars that twinkle with lustre
Aye, every man, aye, every Bronco Buster
Will vote for Teddy on Election Day

Let every new voter, every old voter, every Democrat voter
Go register straight away
And every lady in the land will respect
You, Aye, she will adore you
Then you vote for Teddy, on next Election Day.

WHO DIRECTS "BOO-ERS"

"Go to Mt. Vernon Thursday with your cars: fill up the streets and 'boo' Mr. Willkie and take some of the conceit out of him."

This is reported to us as having been given as advice to a group of folks at a democratic meeting here a few night ago, by one of the "higher-ups" in the councils of the democratic party—a well known perennial beneficiary of one or more public pay-rolls. It would appear that this low-brow un-American stuff—heckling Mr. Willkie—is coming from the higher-ups, rather than from the "sewer rats" as we had supposed.

The office of the Wayne County Willkie Club has been moved from the second floor of the Corner Candy Store building to the Hendinger Headquarters room in the Odd Fellows building on the west side of the public square.

Chicago Tribune Says The Situation In District

(Chicago) Republican leaders here think that there is an excellent chance for the 24th congressional district to go to the Republican camp. For this reason they are making the remaining election, to come off in the fall, a contest of the state organization of the Republican party in 11 counties that make up the district. By changing only a few votes cast for the district two years ago, the Republicans could have been in control since 1928, party.

Willkie Sentiment G. O. P. workers here are growing impatient with the present administration. Wendell L. Willkie, presidential nominee, is not doing much to include many of the voters, feel that the election of cheap electors of substitutes taken over by the great majority of the voters, many other lines observers reported.

James V. Hurd, the G. O. P. nominee for the 24th district, has been to be of Goldens, De since 1930. And say he now has a chance to win in 1940. He has 24 votes was expected to win in 1940.

Fads to Carry On The 11th voted, republicans expected to return to power this year. Harding, Wayne Congress, and the other party have been in power since 1930. This fact in 1940, the 24th district of Wayne county, has been in power since 1930. The 24th district of Wayne county, has been in power since 1930. many. If only they would drop few lines to the Press once a year could be as much nicer. There are many people that I could mention that I would be so glad to hear from where they are and what they are doing so hope next year there will not be anyone that will overlook reminding for themselves or see that someone else does. Now, as the Cubs I better call this to a halt here I get started on next year's Ink Press. Best wishes to the little one and all the big bears too.

Pol. Richard Sanders, age A. B. Ward Det., Reading Air Base, Reading, Pa. Just finished reading the Wayne County Press. Hadn't seen a time paper for nearly two years. As have been gone quiet a few months saw the names of some of the boys I knew who are in the service. So I thought I'd write. I was inducted into my November 6th at Peoria. Was sent to Scott Field. Was there three years, then I was shipped to Atlantic City, N. J., took my basic training.

It is a beautiful city. We stay in hotels and the best too, if I may say so. We had eighteen days leave. Although I am in the Air Corps, I have had my days of burning feet. Was shipped from Atlantic City to Harrisburg, Pa., air port, and then sent to this new field just started in Reading. Reading is a wonderful place. I have found the East a place to be stationed. We were the first boys at this field and I think we are going to have one of the nicest camps in the country. It is 10 degrees below zero Sunday and we have quiet a snow here. I am in a private but expect to be corporals time next month. I like the army very much, and I am sure we will all be home soon. I am proud to be in the army. I think all the boys feel as I, and I'm sure it won't be long now. I say hello to all my friends and would like to hear from you who cares to write. I am a Eber Sanders, former Fairfield, now at Paxton, Ill.

Robert Leathers, Pres. Wayne County Group, S. J. N. O. 821 S. Main Street, Carbondale. As a student of S. J. N. O. from Clene, I want to thank you for the fine work you have been doing with the Press.

John Tickner, 73, Succumbs

Fairfield lost one of its best known public servants Sunday night when John E. Tickner, city clerk and city collector in Fairfield for many years, died at Fairfield Memorial Hospital at 8:55 p.m.

Mr. Tickner, 73, had been in very frail health since February of 1973 when he apparently blacked out while driving his car. The car crashed and he suffered facial injuries.

His family said his health started declining following that mishap and in July of last year he fell at his home and broke his hip. He was hospitalized and moved into Way-Fair Nursing Home in August.

Mr. Tickner has been in the nursing facility ever since.

Funeral Wednesday

Funeral services will be conducted at 3 p.m. Wednesday at the First United Methodist Church with Rev. Ivan Lurely officiating and burial in Maple Hill Cemetery.

Friends may call at Dixon & Johnson Funeral Home after 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Sexton's Manufacturing Company as a steam presser for a period of 10 years.

Veteran City Worker

In 1928, Mr. Tickner began his long career with the city when he was elected to his first term as city clerk. He served about three terms and during that time established the city collector's office, in which he served for many years.

His association with city hall dates over 40 years. He did work several years in the meter department at the light plant, the Press was told. Mr. Tickner retired a couple of years ago.

He was the charter secretary for the Fairfield Park District, retiring from that post a couple of years ago. Mr. Tickner was a 50-year member of the Modern Woodmen. He was a faithful member of the First United Methodist Church.

Millbrae Highlands, California.
Feb. 3rd, 1939.

Dear Editor:—We moved to Millbrae Highlands, California, August 17th, 1938, after being in Los Angeles for five years. Charles Martin, Jr., is five years of age and Carolyn Bue is two.

Two years ago we all returned to Clatsop for a visit with my mother and father. We are looking forward to another trip there in the near future. We keep in touch with people there and learn of conditions through correspondence with mother, Mrs. Alonzo Behymer. We are extremely interested in the oil fields in Wayne and Clay counties.

We hope that many of the people in southern Illinois will be able to visit California and attended the San Francisco World's Fair which opens February 18th.

During our five years here we have learned to like California and enjoy its delightful climate.

Anderson, Ind. Feb. 4, 1939.

Dear Editor:—I have been wondering if it was too late to write a letter to the Pink Press. I hope not for I would like to get the paper this year. He has three brothers and two sisters who live in Wayne county. One brother Stafford Vaughn, lives in Evansville, Ind.

My father is Charles Odell, who lived in Mill Shoals, until my mother's death three years ago last of August. He is in East St. Louis now with my brothers, Herman and Everett. Fred lives in St. Louis, Mo. My oldest brother, George, lives in Arkansas. My oldest sister, Flossie, lives in Iowa.

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 22, 1939.

Dear Editor:—As it is almost time for another issue of the Pink Press I thought I would write as I am one of Wayne readers. I will be remembered as Emma Matchett of near Clatsop. I left old Wayne county about 1935 or there about. It will seem the Columbia River, between the Spokan. Her brother, Clyde Waller, lives here. I see him occasionally though I have not seen him now for several months. My brother, Ernest, lives at LaGrande, Oregon, where he is the owner and manager of a business school.

My wife and I took quite an extended trip through some of the National Parks last Summer and perhaps in some later issue the editor will let me tell about it.

OSCAR E. DRAPER.

5506 16th Ave., N. E.

Cisco, Ill. Jan. 21, 1939.

Dear Editor: Here it is almost time for the Pink Press, and we know the "Cub Reporter" will have it all O. K. even if the Boss is gone. Time moves fast.

In about 1860 my father, Henry Yohp and family came from Ohio to Illinois. They came on a boat down the Ohio river to Shawneetown. Then with a pair of oxen and wagon they started to hunt land for a home. It took them about five weeks to travel where they took their land for a home, west of Jeffersonville, and one mile north of Wm. Slack and David Truax's claims. They had come from Ohio about that time.

When the Civil War was declared my two oldest brothers, William and Lewis, enlisted in Company K, 111th Regt. Illinois Vol. Infantry, where they fought and were killed on the battlefield. That left my father to grub and clear his land for a home all alone. My brother Alfred was a small boy. They lived in a double log house on Jonathan Harris' land until father cleared some ground and hewed logs to build a two story log house with a south porch and side kitchen. As he got some of his forty acres cleared he put out fruit trees, cedar trees, flowers, bushes and made a garden. Mother carded sheep's wool and spun and wove cloth to make clothes. They kept horses, cows, chickens, geese, ducks, turkeys, hogs, and sheep. I remember the sheep, one evening I went to the barn to gather the eggs. As I was coming through the barn hot the old buck sheep, with big horns, run me and knocked me down and I thought he would kill me. I screamed and cried for help. My father rescued me.

This is January 24th, a good many years since I was a little girl on the farm. I have lived in Cisco over 30 years. We bought this home 39 years ago last December and have lived here ever since. Quite an im-my issue of the Pink Press and not until I had glanced through the pages to find or rather not find a single letter from Detroit did I feel that someone had shirked an opportunity to report the information concerning the many Wayne county people who are now making this great city their home.

I had written almost every year since we left Fairfield in 1923 and I hoped that so many letters would be sent from here that there would not be anything for me to write as people may live of the same thing from year to year.

So long as no one reported (as far as I have seen) I got busy on the telephone and procured all the information that I could and I will endeavor to write now. They say better late than never but next year I will either get started earlier or see that someone else does. So many people are here from the home town and have made good and I feel that the ones at home should know it.

The first one that I called was Mrs. Benj. Sloan, who with Mr. Sloan, resides in their own home at 2045 Duway St. Mr. S. is employed at the Plymouth Plant where he has been for the past eight years. His work has been steady the past year. They are both enjoying fair health.

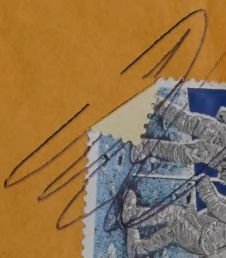

Their oldest son, Earl, wife and one child live at 14223 Ward, and he is a teacher at the Moore School for Boys. Their other son, Clarence, is on the police force, is married and lives at 7753 Meade St., Dearborn, Mich.

Mrs. Sloan also gave me the information that Clint Grady and his wife, formerly Mabel Barnhouse, reside in their own home at 2127 Lakewood and her brother, Eldon Barnhouse, is married and lives in the upper flat at the same address. Orman Walker and family, of wife (Marie Barnhouse) and year old daughter live in their own home at 2129 Dezel. You will see that most everyone reported here in has purchased their homes as their residence is pretty well established here.

I talked to Mrs. Harry Swan and she with Mr. Swan and their son, George, who is a dentist, and daughter, Helen and son, Homer, reside at 4863 Maplewood. Helen and Homer will graduate from high school in June. Their oldest son, Max and wife, formerly Ill. Harris, and two year old daughter live in their own home at 1144 Winthrop. I will write the Detroit

RAILROAD NEWS.

RESIGNED.

The many friends of Will W. Olmstead will regret to learn that he has tendered his resignation as station agent of the Wabash here, to take effect within ten days. It is not known yet who will be his successor. Will has not yet decided what he will do.

A., C. & S. R. R.

There is not very much stir being made just now about the Albion, Carmel & Shawneetown railroad; but the projectors seem confident that the road will be in running order and the shops in full blast in this city before the Wabash shops are moved to Mt. Carmel.

DEATH ON THE RAIL.

On Sunday morning, about 2 o'clock, as a Wabash freight from the south was coming down the grade about one mile south of Brown's Station, in this county, George A. Campbell, a brakeman, fell between the cars while setting the brakes, and was mangled almost beyond recognition, the head being horribly crushed, and both legs cut off. Campbell was twenty-three years old, and resided at Paris, Ill., to which place the remains were taken yesterday for interment. Only a day or two before his death deceased had taken out a life insurance policy for $500. His parents reside in California.

Fred Endecott has resumed his position at the Wabash depot. Albert Jones now takes the night job.

Another change of night operators at the L. & N. Mr. McGhee, of McLeansboro, now holds the position.

The L. & N. will put on another train on the Shawnee branch, leaving Shawneetown at 10 a. m., and returning at 3 p. m.

The report that Col. D. G. Moore had resigned as Sup't of the Cairo division of the Wabash, turns out to be an error. He has no idea of resigning.

A slight change of time has been made on the Wabash, which however, does not effect the regular passenger trains. In place of the "cannon ball," an accommodation freight has been put on, which leaves here at 2 a. m. and returns at midnight.

The Mt. Carmel Republican says: "Carmel is trying to make up for the expected loss of the shops, by having all of her soldiers get an arrearage of pensions. Col. Partridge, the boss pension agent, knocks the Government every few days for a few thousand for the boys."

CITY COUNCIL.

The monthly report of City Treasurer Cochran, showing balance of $2,744.35, was approved.

The monthly report of J. B. Allen, Police Magistrate, was approved.

The Mayor and Clerk were instructed to issue the call for $2,000 city bonds, the Treasurer having deposited that amount in New York.

Murder of John Behymer.

News of the murder of John Behymer, of Mill Shoals, at Wayne city on Monday afternoon of last week, was received here too late for mention in the TIMES. Orlando Kirby, the murderer, was arrested on Friday one mile and a half north of Keen's Station—only about four miles distant from the scene of the horrible crime. It is stated he had been secreted in a hay-loft on the premises of one Polly Patterson ever since the evening the murder occurred, and had been cared for by her. She finally sent word to the officers and the prisoner was secured and is now in jail at Fairfield. A reward of $400 had been offered—$200 by the father of Behymer and $200 by Sheriff Carson of Wayne county. The following particulars are obtained from the Fairfield Record:

"It appears from the best information we can get that an ill feeling existed between the two, growing out of the fact that Kirby had let Behymer's little boy have a revolver some months since, with which he shot himself through the foot. Kirby was reported for carrying concealed weapons, and thought Behymer had done it. He then made threats which will no doubt be proven at the proper time, that he would kill the man that reported him if he ever learned just who it was. He has since been heard to make threats against Behymer.

"The place where the shooting was done was in the store building at Behymer's mill near Wayne City. Under the same roof as the room known as the store building, is a house where the men working at the saw mill were boarded. They were at dinner when Orlando Kirby, who had been discharged some time before, came in and asked for Behymer. After dinner Behymer went into the store room where Kirby was, and they became engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the killing of Mr. Behymer. The men had all gone to the mill near by, with the exception of a young man by the name of Ed. Pennington, who was the only eye witness to the shooting. He reports that after quarrelling a short time they commenced fighting, when Kirby pulled out a revolver and shot Behymer twice. One shot entered the center of his breast and the other about four inches below the nipple on right breast, causing death in a few minutes. After he was shot he walked out of the house before falling.

"Orlando Kirby is a young man who is known as a rough character, drank considerable and made a habit of carrying fire arms.

"John W. Behymer was a member of the firm of Behymer & Co., who have a saw mill and large store at Mill Shoals and a saw mill at Wayne City. Mr. Behymer was known as a quiet and peaceable man, who very seldom had an unfriendly word with any one, and his sudden taking off casts a gloom over the whole community where he was known. He leaves a wife and little boy, father, brothers and many relatives to mourn over the terrible affair and his departure from among them."

The Democrats in Evansville yesterday elected the Mayor, Treasurer, Surveyor and five councilmen.

MURDER
At Wayne City Last Monday.

Caused by Cowardly Carrying Deadly Weapons.

John Behymer Shot Twice by Orlando Kirby, and Expires Almost Instantly.

The Murderer Escapes Into the Skillet Fork Bottoms, With Many Citizens in Pursuit.

$200 Reward Offered by the Father of the Murdered Man.

About noon on Monday last occurred the first murder that has stained the history of our county for many years. At 2 o'clock telegrams were received by Sheriff Carson from Wayne City announcing the death of John Behymer at the hands of Orlando Kirby and asking for help to capture the murderer. Deputy Sheriff Bennett and Town Marshal Schell left on the 3:15 train for Wayne City. They found the town a scene of

 and Mr. Bennett started as many men as possible out in search of the fugitive. From the best information we can get the bloody affair was brought about as follows: Kirby went to the mill, about one mile east of Wayne City, and

CALLED BEHYMER FROM THE TABLE
 where he was eating dinner in a boarding house near the mill. They went into the store near by and began a conversation in regard to some logs at the mouth of Horse Creek, which were to be brought down to the mill. In the talk Bird Ray, a cousin of Kirby's, was mentioned, as having gone down to Mill Shoals to settle with Nathaniel Behymer, father of the murdered man, with the intention of quitting logging. John Behymer remarked that he was glad it was as Ray was of no account. Angry words followed, then a fight, Kirby pulling pistol and shooting Behymer near the heart. They were very near each other and, as one report, Behymer wrenched the pistol from his grasp when Kirby

PULLED A SECOND PISTOL
 and shot the already fatally wounded man again, this time lower down. Either shot would have resulted in death. Kirby was so close to the deceased that Behymer's brought to the flesh. Behymer started to blow Kirby as he left the store but got only a short distance when he turned back, fell in the door of the kitchen, and soon expired without a word.

deeply. And the brothers and sisters and parents of the deceased are disconsolate in this their great bereavement."

KIRBY DESCRIBED.
 Monday evening Sheriff Carson mailed to many points postal cards reading as follows: MURDERER AT LARGE! $200.00 REWARD

Orlando Kirby, the murderer of John Behymer, is about 5 ft. 4 or 5 inches high, 24 years old, light complexioned, light hair cut very short. Had on dark clothing. Little and bony finger off of right hand, and large scar running up in right hand from saw cut.

I. B. CARSON, Sheriff Wayne Co. Fairfield, March 24, 1883.
 Kirby is a hard case generally; is a great blusterer and seems to have desired notoriety as a rough and a bully. He and was so proud of his Jesse James tendencies as to have his picture taken with his two revolvers prominently displayed. While indulging in much loud talk and bravado it was not generally thought that he would shoot. He was frequently drunk.

ALWAYS CARRIED TWO PISTOLS

SUNDRY FACTS AND RUMORS.
 Kirby left the mill bareheaded but is supposed to have got a hat at Doc Ray's, a relative, who lives in the vicinity.

Some months since at a dance at Mill Shoals, Kirby felt encumbered by two pistols and gave one to John Behymer's son to carry for him. The pistol went off in the boys' pocket wounding him in the foot. This is reported to be one cause of ill feeling between the murderer and his victim.

Kirby is said to have several times threatened the life of Behymer on account of differences in regard to settlement of accounts.

Tuesday morning it was reported that Dr. Garrison had seen Kirby a few miles west of Wayne City and a posse of citizens started on the search armed with shot guns.

Kirby has relatives in Hamilton county, also near Evansville and in the vicinity of Topeka, Kas., to some of which he will doubtless appeal for help.

Many persons in the vicinity of Wayne City believe that Kirby went to the mill for the purpose of assaulting Behymer.

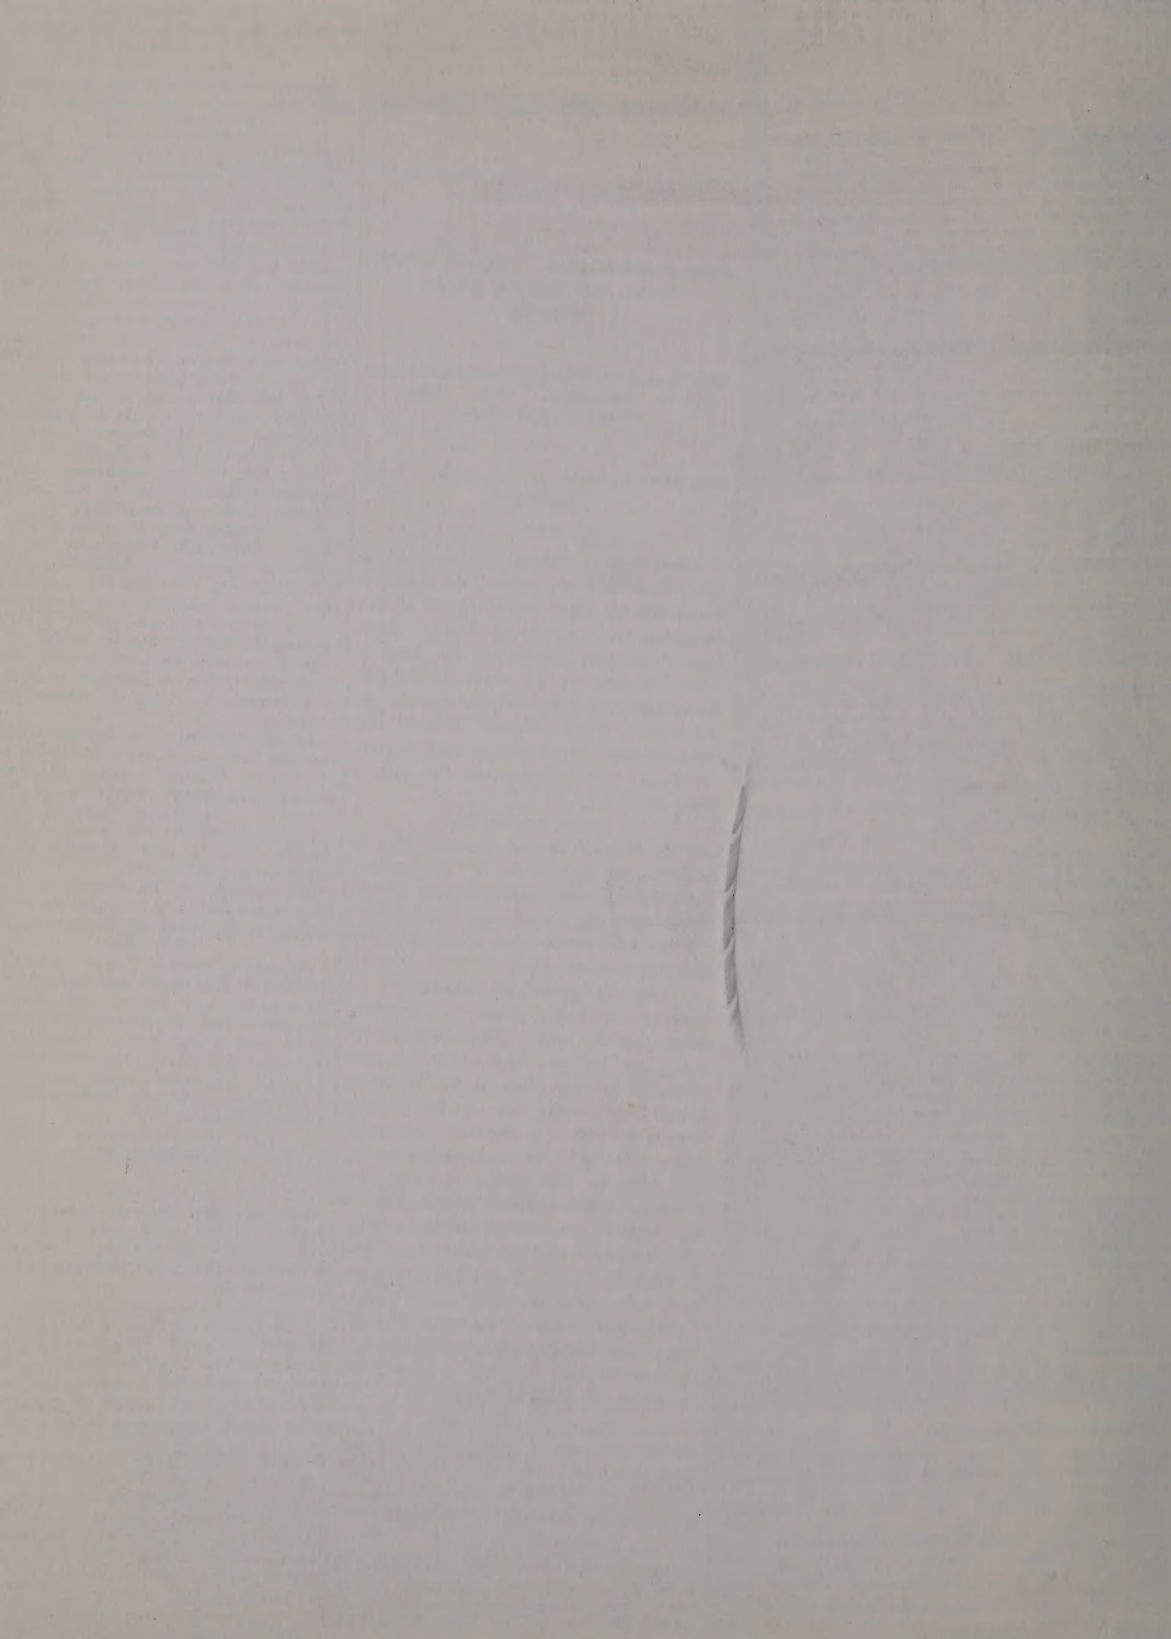

THE FUNERAL.
 Behymer's remains were brought to Fairfield on Wednesday morning's train and taken to the Lang House where the coffin was opened that the friends and the public might take a last look. In the afternoon the burial took place at the new cemetery.

LATEST NEWS.
 All reports of Kirby's being arrested are without foundation.

ACCIDENTS.
SPRAINED FOOT.
 Last week Mrs. Dingman, daughter of D. Reinhart, of this vicinity, in jumping from a wagon caught her clothing in such a way as to cause a severe fall, resulting in a badly sprained foot.

CUT WITH A BUTCHER KNIFE.
 John Crouch has been in the butchering business for many years, but never until last week did he know just what it was to be slashed into with a butcher knife. He was walking on the streets carrying one of those curved knives used in the slaughter house. The hand holding the knife was winging carelessly by his side when the handle ran against Uncle Bob Forth's Jackson House fence causing the blade to enter his leg, making an ugly but not troublesome cut. He was able for duty in Jell's meat market next day, cutting steak "tender as a chicken" from any part of the beef desired.

KICKED BY A HORSE.
 Last Thursday evening a young boy, Wm. Eastman, was kicked on the head by D. M. Vetter's heavy horse. The horse did not

Antioch School.
On Friday, March 16, I closed a pleasant
term of four months at Antioch, in Bedford.
While a rose is seldom found without a thorn, it has been my happy lot to enjoy the sweet fragrance of many roses with just enough thorns to set the roses off to advantage. The pupils of this school are nearly all industrious, energetic workers.
In various ways the parents have manifested an interest in the welfare of the school, for which my thanks are heartfelt and without measure.
To the pupils, who, by their faithfulness in labor and excellent conduct have won my lasting affection, my farewell is full of sweet remembrances.
W. S. WHITARE.
We take the liberty of adding the following poem, written by Mr. Whitare, a copy of which was given to each scholar at the close of the school:

GOOD BYE.
How solemn seems the tread of Time
When ere he brings the parting hour:
No joyous peal nor merry chime
Can fright away his subtle power;
He comes to tell us we must take,
Without delay, the parting hand;
Our ties of union he will break,
'E'en now he says to us, "disband."

From day to day as you advanced,
And one by one your lessons learned
I oft into your natures glanced
To see if there affection burned.
Of love I cherished every gleam
That shone in luster from the eye;
Mine in return flows like a stream
That never fails in its supply.

To-day my mind in long review
Turns backward to the days gone by,
Again see every lesson through,
Remembers every tearful eye.
Your pleasures and your sorrows all
Will be remembered by the one
Who loves you now, both large and small,
Who'll love you still when he is gone.

How sad becomes my weary heart,
How tender and how void of cheer,
To think that now perhaps we part
To meet no more forever here.
With all my heart I wish you well,
And hope to meet you by and by,
Where pupils never may farewell,
Nor teachers speak the sad good-bye.

the fifth farm sold to the same colony, was Nat Wilson's, 3 1/4 miles west of town, 60

he came to Wayne County, Ill., where he has lived ever since. He came here when the woods were filled with wild beasts and the country was a wilderness. He came here with his older brother. It was in a time when the mustering day surpassed in grandeur our fair day: at least more bad whiskey was stowed away, and more free fights indulged in. Here, on Turney's Prairie, he lived with an old gentleman, and the first winter went to school about three months. He finally bought forty acres at $1.25 per acre, and with a brave heart and hardened muscles went to work improving it. He at one time owned 300 acres of land, and now owns 128 acres, a part of which is the old homestead. Our subject has seen a great many changes, and has at least seen more than two generations rise and pass away. He was married twice. His first wife, Maria Butler, was a native of Kentucky, and died here in 1861, leaving eight children, of whom three are now living, viz.: Warren, David and Thomas. The latter is living in California. His present wife, Martha A. (George) Atteberry, is a daughter of William W. George, Esq., a prominent citizen of this county. This union was blessed with four children, viz.: Martha M., William W., Delbert B. and Oscar B. Mr. and Mrs. Atteberry are active members of the Missionary Baptist Church, and their standing in the community is the very best. Mr. Atteberry is a true type of our old pioneers, and quite strong in body and mind for a man of his age, he having seen eighty summers unfold their beauteous foliage. He is no politician, but is identified with the Democratic party.

A. J. BEHIMER, farmer, P. O. Mill Shoals, was born in Clermont County, Ohio, on January 22, 1832, and is a son of John and Jane (Meeker) Behimer. The grandfather, Nathaniel Behimer, was born in Virginia, and there the father also was born. The latter moved to Richland County, Ill., where he died. The mother was a native of New Jersey, and a daughter of Jonas and Charity Meeker. This lady was the mother of fifteen children, of whom nine are living, and died in Richland County, Ill. Subject went to school in Ohio and Indiana, and in early life he turned his attention to saw milling, and followed that from 1858 to the forepart of 1883. He has, however, lately turned his attention to farming, and now owns 140 acres. Mr. Behimer was married, in 1854, in Jennings County, Ind., to Miss Jemima L. Beeman. This lady was born in Jennings County, Ind., on January 2, 1834, and is a daughter of Jonathan and Mary (Pool) Beeman. Eight children have blessed this union—Alfred J., Sarah E., Francis M., Mary A., James E., Cora G., Bertie T. and Della T. In politics, Mr. Behimer is identified with the Republican party.

S. M. BOSWELL, farmer, P. O. Fairfield. The one of whose life this sketch is a brief epitome, was born on December 19, 1836, and is the son of H. and Jane (Maxim) Boswell. The father, who was a native of North Carolina, and a farmer by occupation, was a son of Hezekiah Boswell, Sr., and came to Gibson County, Ind., when a young man, where he resided till his death. The mother, who was a native of Indiana, lived and died in that State. Her parents were Sylvester and Polly Maxim, natives of Connecticut. She was the mother of twelve children, of whom three are now living—Mary (wife of Wesley Spain), Amanda (wife of Henry Lamb, and our subject. The latter's education was received at Princeton, Gibson Co., Ind., and in early life his occupation was mainly that of a farmer. In 1867, he came to Wabash County, Ill., and on the following year moved to Mount Carmel, and there re-

Both Peter and Heinrich were listed as passengers on the Britannia when it arrived here in the Colonies. Their name was Geber and in German it means donor or giver. A copy of the ship's manifest shows Heinrich to be older by enough years to be Peter's Father. There were a total of 13 on one manifest and on another it shows 11 - some discrepancy.

They ported in Philadelphia. The family was signed into "indentured servitude" (bonded servants) to work off their passage. Getting here was a difficult trip. They were escaping the religious persecution occurring in what is called the great Pallatin or Pallatinate area. Without any chattels, they loaded up in small wooden scows (boats) and floated down river to Rotterdam where English ships awaited them.

This period of time has been called "The great Pallatin Migration" for many of family did the same for a number of years. We do not know at this point how many got on the ship but we do know that either 11 or 13 arrived. Their arrival is recorded in Philadelphia.

Johannis Peter Geber's name was changed to Gaver by the English. They were required to swear an Oath of Allegiance to the English for their bringing to the colonies. After their servitude, they settled in and around Frederick, Md and more specifically Johann Peter Gaver lived in Burkittsville, Md where he had acquired significant land holdings, lost them and then regained them after the Civil War. There is a "Gaver Cemetery" in Frederick.

The only immigration recording for Geber's (now Gaver) was in 1731 from the ship Britannia. Others by the same name Geber came in the early to mid 1800's. I have no knowledge if they are related.

All other Gaver's are descendants of Heinrich Gebeer/Johannis Peter Gebere.

Daniel Gaver of Ellerton, Frederick Co., Maryland, was NOT related to Peter Gaver of Burkittsville, Frederick Co., Maryland. It is NOT ENOUGH to know that your ancestors came from Maryland or even from Frederick County to know which family is your source.

I have come to this conclusion by studying Beckenbaugh and Marker family postings on internet bulletin boards. Although these are not primary sources, they tell a coherent story.

George Marker was born 4th August 1753 at Frederick City, Frederick Co., Maryland, son of Paul Marker and Elizabeth Wetzel. This same George Marker served as executor for the will of Daniel Gaver, signed 12 April 1798 and filed 18th December 1799. Paul Marker was born 2 July 1720 at Preuschkorf and married 26 January 1745 at Mitschkorf, both in Alsace-Lorraine.

Paul Marker died about 1755 at Frederick. His widow remarried Daniel Gaver, proving that Daniel Gaver came to Frederick County at least a dozen years before Peter Gaver. There was only one child mentioned in Daniels will, a son named John. Daniel stated explicitly in his will that John had married Susan Beckenbaugh. This is what sent me looking at Beckenbaugh bulletin boards. He then lists the names of seven surviving children of this marriage, his grandchildren. John was already deceased in 1798 and was probably born before 1760, ten years before Peter Gaver arrived.

Susanna Beckenbaugh was born in 1762 at Middletown, Frederick Co., Maryland, daughter of John Caspar Beckenbough and Susanna Sinn.

From the size of Daniel Gaver's land holding, at least 1200 acres, he must have gotten an early start on prosperity. From this I conclude that he was at least solvent on arrival and not involved in indentured servitude. This makes it likely that he entered via Baltimore, which was up and running by 1740 and is reputed to have sent thousands of Germans directly inland to Frederick County before 1755. Baltimore was not popular with those who were unable to pay full fare because it was in a slave state. He probably arrived at about the same time that Peter Gaver arrived at some new entry port in New Jersey.

I lack an exact birthdate for Daniel Gaver. I doubt that he is likely to be much younger than Elizabeth Wetzel's first husband, who was born in 1720. Birth after 1730 is, therefore, most unlikely.

Maryland Route 17 and the Conococheague Trail, identical in course to Main Street and Gapland Road. The intersection of these two trails forms an apex opposed forty-five degrees to true north allowing us to label each quadrant by its respective cardinal compass point. This junction itself will serve as a convenient focus for this study identified as "cross-corner," its locally accepted designation.

The earliest speculators inadvertently established holdings that in fact surrounded what was to become the main artery proper. First among these was the creation of the 215-acre tract "Dawson's Purchase" in 1741 by Thomas Dawson, fitting snugly into the southern quadrant near the apex.¹ Below it and straddling both southern and eastern quadrants came "Uncle's Gifts;" first patented by Thomas Cresay, but ultimately assigned to Thomas Hawkins in 1747.²

Both western and northern quadrants were dominated at their earliest dates by owners of hazy origin. As near as can be discerned, Peter Gaver appears to have applied for a 100-acre grant sometime in the mid-1730's, a tract he styled "Gaver's Discovery" abutting both trails in the western quadrant. Having confirmed "Uncle's Gift" and numerous other tracts, Thomas Hawkins seems to have taken advantage of Gaver's procedural lethargy by snapping up the "Discovery" for himself and patenting it under the revealing title "I've Got It At Last" in 1754.³ It would remain so for thirty-five years when advanced age put an end to Hawkins' unbridled speculation.⁴

To the north, the Lord Proprietor granted a certain John Tucker 106 plus acres in 1771 as "Honesty Is Best When Looked To."⁵ Its original deed of grant has not survived, but we do know that this tract initially exceeded its stated acreage including most of the northern and spilling into the eastern quadrant. Its recorded acreage was sold in 1773 to Adam Knauff of Frederick County.⁶ The metes and bounds of Knauff's deed contain unqualified vagaries. However, they do disclose that this tract included a curious "tail" jutting into the eastern quadrant adjacent to the next key property along the Conococheague Trail.

"Friends Good Will" - often cited as the town's antecedent - was patented by James Piles sometime prior to Tucker's "Honesty Is Best" ascribing almost identical, contiguous bounds although foul of each other, a not uncommon occurrence among first grants.

Maryland Genealogical Society Bulletin, Volume 1-38

Vol. 29, No. 3, Summer 1988, Coming Home: The Deardorff Family in Burkittsville, Frederick County, Maryland, 1769-1803, Page 253

At Last" were relinquishing small chunks for quick profits needed to offset the increased expenses of large working farms.¹⁹

The last named property was absorbed into one of the first major consolidations on record executed by Peter Gaver, a man whose fortunes had changed dramatically. Buying Thomas Hawkins out of his "I've Got It At Last" (Gaver's original "Discovery"), Gaver joined it to parts of "Dawson's Purchase" and a 1780 grant to Daniel Arnold entitled "The Mountain" to form a 197-acre parcel he justifiably registered as "Gaver's Rediscovery" in 1789.²⁰ It also included a strip of "Fielderea Manor" thereby consolidating the entire western quadrant. During this period, Gaver erected his stately stone farmhouse bordering Gapland Road. It proudly graces the west end of town to this day.²¹

As if to shut the diamond's backdoor, the last sliver of the eastern quadrant was granted in 1787 to Joseph Chapline.²² By now its title was all too appropriate: "Confusion."²³ Like a true speculator, Chapline soon sold it to Philip Fink, Sr. who commanded a proper survey in 1796 which he titled "Confusion Amended," the last tract to form the future town's borders.²⁴

The diamond was completely accounted for except a narrow strip of seven and a half acres, the precarious "tail" of "Honesty Is Best," lying dormant between Deardorff's former holdings. Punctuated by unrivaled activity, the ensuing decade witnessed unrelenting subdivision sales as each farmer jockeyed his boundaries into ever more regular and productive configurations. Various individuals gnawed away at the northeast and southeast corners of "Addition to Friends Good Will" viewing the Conococheague Trail as the most convenient and practical access to their burgeoning fields - key property indeed.

Among them was one of the new breed of area planters who consolidated from within rather than from without the diamond: Joshua Harloy. Mystery and folklore have surrounded this dynamic man, some of it most likely propagated by his own descendants. It has been stated in various texts that Harloy emigrated from England and shortly thereafter served as a major in the Continental Army against his native country. Believed to have been wounded at Saratoga, it is said that he was held in high esteem by his fellow officers; a nice story, but pure fabrication.²⁵

Harloy's service records tell a different tale. In fact he served as a three-year private of the 4th Regiment of Continental Light Dragoons. There is no evidence indicating a wound and he was routinely discharged in 1780 - the close of his enlistment - without fanfare.²⁶

He first appears in Frederick County between 1786 and 1797 during which years he acquired three properties near Libertytown,²⁷ land he probably purchased with funds accrued from his army service and bounty award.²⁸ His first purchase within the diamond was a single-acre lot withdrawn from "Addition To Friends Good Will" in 1797.²⁹ This property and "Friends Good Will" had passed a year earlier from Metzgar to George Worman who in turn obliged Harley.³⁰

1797 also saw the advent of Henry Burkitt, his first purchase being five and a half acres of "Honesty Is Best" and a contiguous seventy-two square perches of "Addition" from John Sein "of Mecklenburg, Berkeley County, [West] Virginia."³¹ Sein had no doubt purchased this miniscule plot from Worman a short time prior to its resale to Burkitt. In so doing, Worman unwittingly set the stage for a Harley-Burkitt confrontation.

The closing years of the 18th Century were a lull before the most significant period of land conveyance. Burkitt led the way in 1803 with a one-acre purchase of "Honesty Is Best" from Adam Knauff³² followed in 1806 by the acquisition of the eighteen acres of "Fielderea Manor" bordering "Friends Good Will."³³ His key purchase came in 1809 when he added the seven and a half acre "tail" of "Honesty Is Best" separating Deardorff's former properties to his creeping acquisitions. He styled it "Burkitt's Residence."³⁴ Clearly, Burkitt was surrounding "Friends Good Will" and its coveted "Addition."

Joshua Harley had not been idle either. Seizing the initiative in 1805 he acquired "Gaver's Recovery" from Peter Gaver's heirs³⁵ joining it to "Chestnut Thicket," a twenty-one acre tract sited along Mountain Church Road adjacent to the "Recovery." This parcel dated back to James Piles the elusive creator of "Friends Good Will."³⁶ In this same year, he acquired twenty-five acres of "Honesty Is Best" from ubiquitous Adam Knauff and relentlessly marched toward the cross-corner apex.³⁷ Harley can truly be given credit for selling off the first lots along Main Street at this time.

In 1810 - the pivotal year for Burkittsville³⁸ - both men played their trump cards. Harley acquired a crucial two acres each from both "Addition" and "Gaver's Recovery" (a holdout by

COOPER George line

Responding to your enquiry about a possible obit in one of the SD papers on Rebecca Jane - we can try some of them. She died on Christmas Day, 1921 in Brookings, SD according to notes taken by my Aunt Viola George Walsh, who was 96 years old when she died in 1993 in Eugene, OR.

There were copies of various old newspapers in the family for years but along the way they were lost. The George's moved often after I was born in 1921. I'm certain most of the old papers from back then are no longer in print, but worth a try. A modern paper in either Sioux Falls or Yankton could possibly help us in researching which papers most likely would still be alive, or at least have available records of the 1921 era. There has to be an obit on Becky somewhere. Try the 'Sioux Valley News' in Canton, SD. Also the 'Argus Leader' in Sioux Falls. Wouldn't hurt to touch base with a Mitchell, SD paper also, or the Associated SD Newspaper Publishers, if still active since 1945.

There was an 1880 census taken in SD that I'm sure would reveal some info on Sam & Becky. I've not got a copy though. The Olivet Leader is long gone. In fact, Olivet practically ceases to exist now - no store, no gas - no nothing! Only about 20 people who trade in Scotland - 15 miles away.

I was in Italy in US Army when WWII ended and my two brothers were also overseas - Terry, the youngest, in the Marines (South Pacific) and Bill in Germany in 82 Airborne. We had no chance to preserve any info available then regarding Eugene Clyde, Sam or Becky.

We'll keep in touch.

was her son by her first marriage. David was b. 1864 Johnsonville, IL, his wife was Dora G. FISHER b. 1870 Flora, Clay Co., IL.

Rebecca Jane m. 2d Samuel GEORGE on Thanksgiving Day Nov. 28, 1867 at the residence of W. W. GEORGE Esqr. They were both living in Indian Prairie Twp. Wayne Co, IL. Samuel and W. W. GEORGE were brothers.

This info in the Wayne County Press Dec. 5, 1867.

I found no death for Wm. Blankenship in Wayne County records or in cem books. They may have divorced. I had done some research on the GEORGE family so thought I would check my files and found the obit on Samuel GEORGE of which I will send you a copy plus copies of the census sheets that a lady got for me a long time ago. So at least you know Rebecca Jane was married twice. Apparently David was her only child by Wm. Blankenship.

In the Golden Cemetery, Harter Twp, Clay Co, IL is the following:

BLANKENSHIP, Dora G. b. 1869 d. 1945; David b. 1863 d. 1930; Mary R. b. 1901-; Frank, s/o D. U. and D. G. BLANKENSHIP b. 1 Oct 1895 d. June 20, 1897 age 1y, 8m, 20das.

David does not appear in any of the Wayne or Clay Co, IL. census. Wonder where he was and why he wasn't with his mother and Samuel GEORGE in 1870? Have you tried to obtain an obit on Rebecca Jane from SD yet. If you have her death date it might be our county paper may of received notice of her death since she was the sister in law of W. W. GEORGE and he was well known in our county.

It has been claimed by others that Johannes Jacob Summers came from Germany with two brothers. I think the baptism records indicate he was born here in Frederick County, Maryland. It was also stated in "History of Frederick County, Maryland", (Williams & McKinsey) that he participated in the "War of 1812". This is possible, however he

The list of 244 persons was Palatines, Wurtembergers, and Alsations. He was able to sign his name on this and other documents.

According to D. V. Russell's "Genealogy of Western Maryland", Tobias Horine married Elizabeth Poussert, daughter of Jurg Possert, at Falckner Swamp Church near (New) Hanover, Pennsylvania, (now Gilbertsville, Montgomery County) September 24, 1751. He was called Johann Tobias Haarim in the record of the time. Elizabeth was confirmed there before the congregation on 8 April 1750 at age 16. Tobias and Elizabeth had at least one child there prior to moving to Maryland.

D. V. Russell states that a will on file (at Flein, Heilbronn, Orphans Court #318) of Tobias' father, Adam Horain, was written because Adam wanted an exception of distribution as was required by the laws of the times. The document was written 9 November 1769, "wherein Hans Adam Hohrein, calling himself citizen and commoner, stated that he wanted his estate divided equally among his wife and the children of both his first and second marriages. He mentioned first the daughter of his first marriage Mary Magdalena, now the wife of Johan Friedrich Eberle, who had received her portion already. Next he dealt with Tobias Hohrein, the only living son of his first marriage, who is still living. Tobias against his fathers wishes, in his 17th year before the age of majority, left home, which not only insulted his father but deprived him in those years when he could have been of some benefit to his father. The children of the second marriage, conversely, had lent him a hand and helped him increase his fortune. He therefore ordered that Tobias, instead of his inheritance he should have by law of both real and personal property, have only 300 Guldin (florin, equal to about 25 pounds) and that his inheritance be divided equally among the children of both marriages, excluding the second wife. But if Tobias were to come back or send a power of attorney, then the other children would share proportionately from the balance." He stated further that by German law, a father had the right to give more to one child than the others, provided the second wife did not benefit by such action, a law to protect the children of a first marriage. This will does not name the second wife or the other children.

A codicil was attached February 19, 1772. Madame Hohrein summoned town officials to his sick bed to confirm his will. Adam stated that the 300 Guldin would only be given if Tobias came for it. The will was witnessed and signed by the same officials, Christian Jacob Schmid, a magistrate; T. J. Rudolph Meisert, land commissioner and Jorg Baltas Munzig, judge. This will opens a mystery of where Tobias was after leaving his father at age 17 and arriving in Philadelphia at about age 24.

He first appeared in Frederick County records when a deed was recorded on May 1, 1754 (E.423) for a property containing 81 acres, and called "Johnson's Delight". This property was purchased from Thomas Johnson* and his wife Mary for seventeen pound, seventeen shillings, and seven pence. This property was located on the south side of Mill Creek between Middletown and Harmony, then called Beallsville, on Hollow Road. He bought 303 acres on November 10, 1761 and applied for a patent; the land was re surveyed on April 1, 1762 and was found to contain only 58 acres clear of earlier surveys, and therefore added 245 acres of contiguous vacant land in two pieces; the certificate was for 303 acres in Conococheague Manor and renamed Schin Talir Gutt. A patent was issued May 24, 1764. A discrepancy was also corrected by deed from Thomas Johnson to Tobias dated November 28, 1769 when Tobias paid him 20 pounds for a deficiency of 31 acres in the original 81 acre tract.

Other land transactions by Tobias I were as follows:

- M.316 Tobias and Elizabeth sold to Abraham Hedges and Joseph Hedges 10 acres, part of "Schin Talir Gutt", June 10, 1769.
- M.368 Tobias bought from John Johnson; James Flemming; Thomas Welch, the husband of Elizabeth, deceased; Ann and Hannah, daughters and co-heirs of John Johnson, late of Frederick County, 9 acres land and singular buildings, tract called "Knauss Disappointment", August 9, 1769
- M.596 Bought from Thomas Johnson, Sr.* of Frederick County and Province of Maryland, part of tract called "Johnson's Delight" which was reduced into one entire tract called "Johnson's' Lain", containing 21 acres of land with all buildings, etc., November 28, 1769. There is no mention of

N. 592 Bought from Thomas Johnson of Frederick County, two tracts or parcels of land; one called "Johnson's Lain", containing 81 acres of land; and also a part of the same tract called "Johnson's Lain" containing 25 acres of land, January 22, 1772.

P. 53 At the request of Thomas Johnson the following deed was recorded December 25, 1771 to wit: This indenture made the 20th day of December 1771 between Tobias Horine of Frederick County of the one part and Thomas Johnson of the same county of the other part Witness that the said Tobias Horine sold unto the said Thomas Johnson a certain tract of land also a part of a tract called "Schin Talir Gutt" containing twenty acres of land also a part of a tract called "Johnson's Lain" containing eighty-one acres. No wife of Tobias Horine is mentioned in this deed.

The map of "Schin Talir Gutt", surveyed in 1762, is shown as located between Routes U.S. 40 and 70, the eastern most point is the Johnson Family Graveyard off of Route #40. The property continues west of Gambrills State Park to a point south and west of #40 south of Harmony.

"WMG" lists Tobias as a witness to the will of Jacob Stayley on 6 June 1764. He, George Nogel and Deeter Bowert signed as witness. Deed was translated to English by Michael Trisler.

He took communion at the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Frederick May 3 (see photo on right), 1767 and was naturalized at Annapolis May 7, 1767 in a group consisting of Adam Deetz, William House, David Stadelmyer, John Michael Wittmyer, all Germans of Frederick County. Witnesses were Tobias Reissner and Rudolph Crecelius. A notation dated June 12, 1770 coupling his name with Peter Wedel of Conegetschick appeared in a German newspaper published in Philadelphia. Tobias' son, Tobias II, married Peter Wedels' daughter.

Tobias Horein, farmer, made his will August 14, 1773, when very sick. He left his three sons Adam, Tobias, and Samuel 150 pounds each at age 21, the money to be lent out at interest until then. One month after his death, all movable, except what was necessary to maintain his family were to be sold at public auction, being evaluated first by two neighbors indifferently chosen; all debts to be paid from this sale; and the mill to be properly finished, and if any money remained, to be distributed evenly among his children: Adam, Tobias, Samuel, Magdellen, Susanna, Catharine, Judith, Mary, and Elizabeth when of age. Wife Elizabeth and Adam were to have the plantation for nine years, as long as Adam behaved in a dutiful, industrious sober honest manner to his mother; if not (in the opinion of the executor), he was to be dispossessed.

At the end of nine years, the mill and 20 acres adjoining were to be publicly sold and of the remainder of the plantation, one third to go to wife Elizabeth and the rest divided among the children, reserving 150 pounds for the sons. "If there is or may be or will be any estate by my father Adam Horein of Flein near Heilbronn, Germany, left to me." to be divided equally.

Tobias (II) and Samuel were to be sent to an English School and instructed until they knew the Rule of Three^{*} (view an article that discusses the concept of the Rule of Three), and the daughters to be sent to Dutch (probably Deutsch) schools until they could read Dutch perfectly, the schooling to be paid by his wife and Adam out of profit of the plantation. If any children died, his or her share would be divided equally. Wife was to have her share of the moveables. Michael Troutman of Frederick County to be executor. /s/ Tobias Horein. Witnesses were Thomas Johnson, William Lyons, and Hugh Kelly; acknowledged and probated October 30, 1773.

Descending Jacob's Ladder, a genealogy history of the Troutman family by Thomas L. Troutman 1993, reports that John Michael Troutman (1739-1814) a large Kentucky land owner, administered Tobias estate in Frederick County.

The inventory was taken November 20, 1773 by Thomas Johnson and George Bril and signed by Elizabeth Horine (by mark), it included 1 wagon, 4 wagon wheels, 2 horses and tack, 2 colts, 2 steers, several cows, 10 sheep, 10 geese, 6 shoats (?), 3 sows, wearing apparel, household goods, farming implements, beehives, windmill, a Bible and psalm book, a conk shell, total 168 pounds, 10 shillings, 5 pence. The inventory was attested to February 10, 1774. The executor filed his accounts November 8, 1774, which showed a balance of 204 pounds, 7 shillings, 7 1/2 pence. Charles Hedges witnessed.

Adam sold the 303 acre property October 10, 1786 to Michael Troutman for 55 pounds. Troutman must have had other powers as executor, on March 20 1783 he sold 73 acres of Schin Talir Gutt to Henry Staley, and on August 20, 1783 he had 40 acres of the tract re surveyed under the name "Troutmans Delight". One wonders if these sales were known by the heirs. On November 22, 1793, while living in Bullitt County, Kentucky, he gave his friend Joseph Swearingen power of attorney and in May 1796 sold Troutmans Delight, with other land to Jacob Staley. This property would eventually return to the Horine family.

Baptismal records of Frederick Evangelical Lutheran Church lists the following births and baptisms of some of the children of Tobias and Elizabeth. (All names are spelled as they are in the various records.)

NOTES

- * I often wondered if there is a connection here between Thomas Johnson, Esq.; first governor of Maryland, lifelong friend and business associate of George Washington, who saved his command of the Colonial Army; member of the Continental Congress, and one of the first Justices of the Supreme Court. He and his family had extensive land holdings in the area; particularly at Catoctin Furnace and Mill Creek, which is the area in question. However, he didn't acquire his property until 1760 and did not move to Frederick permanently until 1761. During this era it was not unusual for people to acquire large land tracts in distant areas for investment only. However, Donna Valley Russell, in Vol 1, No.3 "WMG" pretty much clears that up by proving there was another Thomas Johnson in the area far earlier than the founding patriot.

-  The Samuel reported by Darla Jones may have been related to another line as Court House records indicate this Samuel is definitely the son of Tobias and Elizabeth.

 "WMG" date of Adams son, John H. (Johan Heinrich) Horine, birth differ with church records which gives his birth (9 Apr 1775) and baptism (11 Jun 1775). "Schildknechts, Vol II" reports that an Adam Horine immigrated from the city of Hyne, near Heilbrun, on the Neckar River, and settled in the Middletown Valley. Although I long thought it was his brother, his father's will indicates he had no brother, so the Adam in question must have been his son.

* The rule of three, also called the golden rule, was a method for finding a fourth number, given a series of three in which the proportion between the first and second is the same as that between the third and unknown fourth. Basically, it is ratios, if you learned to do those in junior high school. For example, if the three numbers were one and three and seven, then the fourth number would be twenty-one. (If you don't understand how this works, then you can see why it was considered difficult enough to be specified in an apprenticeship contract.)

The preceding genealogy research data was obtained from many sources. Most biographical sketches were extracted from Donna Valley Russell's Western Maryland Genealogy and William's and McKinsey's History of Frederick County Maryland, Volume I and II.

Although I did not use foot notes in this report, I have tried to cite my sources where possible. Early on, when I began this search, it was a project I did for my own curiosity and I therefore was lackadaisical in my note keeping, not meaning to disseminate this information to others. Where possible I have corrected this oversight and have updated from time to time.

There are some discrepancies between some information I have obtained and data supplied by others. Most of these are minor and concern dates and ages. There are some incidences where there is confusion about Tobias Horine I and Tobias Horine II as being the first Horine in Western Maryland, I hope this will clarify that, as most of my records are from published public records of the day.

Most spelling in this report is entered as they were listed in the various documents, however, I'm sure there are a few "typos" that I apologize for. If any errors are discovered in this paper, I would appreciate being advised of same, so it may be corrected

Note: I am currently gathering information on the following early families of Frederick County who were connected to the Horines by marriage: Routzahn, Dutrow, Summers, Bowlus, Merkle, Doub, and Shanks. If you wish, I will send them on completion.

The Three Horine Lines in America

There seem to be three separate Horine Lines that immigrated to America in the eighteenth century. For the benefit of the many Horine researchers that have accessed this page, I will summarize these three lines with the hope of distinguishing the line you may be associated with. These are listed in chronological order of immigration.

Line I: Johann Tobias Horine \(1725-1773\)

This is my line, and the line that is the principle subject of this page. Johann Tobias Horine arrived at the port of Philadelphia on November 17th, 1749, on the ship "Dragon". His German father was Hans Adam Horine \(1691-1772\), who did not come to America. The descendants of Johann Tobias Horine settled in the Middletown Valley in Western Maryland, and eventually migrated to Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky in the nineteenth century.

Line II: The Brothers Michael, Jacob & George Horine

These three oldest sons of Frederick Horine (born 1715 in Alsace-Lorraine, France) are said to have arrived in America around 1770. They lived for a time in Frederick County, Maryland.

Michael Lettows

[illegible]

1. Michael Horine (1750-7/1810), moved from Frederick County, Maryland to Jefferson County, Kentucky in 1780. Michael Horine was married ca. 1773 in Maryland or Pennsylvania to Susanna Chappell (1767?-11/24/1824). Between 1800 and 1802, Michael and his family moved to Franklin County and St. Genevieve County (now Washington County), Missouri. Michael Horine was apparently murdered in July 1810 and is buried in Horine Cemetery, Richwoods, Missouri.
2. Jacob Horine (1754-1832), a Revolutionary War soldier from Pennsylvania. Jacob served in the military Continental Army. He had two enlistments:
 1. Private in the 8th Company, New 11th Pennsylvania Second Line.
 2. Private in the company of Captain Andrew Boggs, 7th Battalion, Lancaster County Militia, 1780.

Jacob married ca. 1780 Barbara Swartz (ca. 1759-1804). In 1795, They migrated west to Mercer County, Kentucky. In 1798 they established a new home in Knobb Creek, Bullitt County, Kentucky, where Jacob died. In the nineteenth century descendants of Jacob Horine, one of whom was Emmett F. Horine, M.D., migrated to Monroe County, Illinois, and later to Missouri.

3. George Horine (1756-1815), may have been a Revolutionary War soldier, and may have been a physician. He moved to Jefferson County, Kentucky ca. 1790, and died July 22, 1815 in Mercer County, Kentucky. He married Nancy Higgins Mercer Co., KY, 5-12-1796. Nancy was born 1775 in Virginia and died 1846 in Kentucky.

Line III: Peter Frederick Horine (1742-1817)

Peter Frederick Horine was the son of David Ulrick Horine (1698-1765), who was one time Burgomeister of the city of Dresden, Germany. The immigrant, Peter Frederick Horine, arrived at Baltimore on the ship "Loyal Edith" in April, 1780. His family settled in Hagerstown, Maryland where he and his wife raised a large family. Three of Peter's sons, Conrad (1770-), Henry (1775-1852), Jacob (1777-1842), subsequently moved to Jessimine County, Kentucky in 1799. A fourth son, Henry (1768-) stayed in Maryland.

Special Note: While this page is primarily devoted to the descendants of Johann Tobias Horine, I would welcome the family histories of these other Horine lines. To that end, please consider sending me your histories, preferably in electronic form on disk or as an e-mail attachment. I could then format them for Web publication, and link them to this page wherever appropriate. I've received so many Horine family reference requests, that I believe it is time to broaden the scope of this page to include data on as many Horine lines as I can document.

Descendants of Johann Tobias Horine

My Horine Family has a long and interesting history. This German family immigrated very early (1749), and for the next century lived the pioneer life in Western Maryland and Ohio.

My Grandfather Harrison Leonard Horine (b. 30 January, 1889, d. 25 July, 1953) was a veteran of World War I. He married Mary Mabel Miller (b. 18 February, 1891, d. 12 November, 1976) on October 15, 1922. Their only child, my mother, Rosella Lee Horine was born on February 3, 1925.

The family homestead of my Great Grandfather Joseph Newton Horine (b. 18 December, 1859, d. 29 November 1906) and Mary Ellen Hemp (b. 8 April, 1863, d. 15 July, 1933) was a solid white frame house west of Castine, Ohio. Joseph Newton Horine was the son of George Tobias Horine (b. 15 February, 1830 in Frederick County, Maryland - d. 2 January, 1895 at his home in West Manchester, Ohio) and Eliza STOUT (b. 26 January, 1836, d. 15 May, 1903), whose marriage was blessed with a family of five sons. Eliza was the daughter of Jacob Stout and Catherine MECKLEY of Lehigh County, Pennsylvania. George and Eliza farmed Jacob Horine's land in Butler Township when first married, but after several years they purchased land in Section 28 and built a brick home and other out buildings. George was also active in the United Brethren Church leadership and for a period of time entered the mercantile business with two of his sons.

George Tobias Horine was a son of Jacob Horine and Elizabeth DUTRO, who brought their family by covered wagon to Darke County, Ohio, in 1836, settling in lot 27, Butler township. Samuel Solomon Horine described this journey from Maryland to Ohio in a 1906 letter to his cousin Mrs. Mary Dutro:

Home-no-more

In Grandfather's Mother's [Elizabeth Poussert ?] Child-hood Home. A few short weeks came and went. The old home with it's halo was lost sight of. The [Middletown] valley with its somber sheen could not be seen. Myersville [Maryland], a nice little village in the back ground of our home, the rocks and hills meadows and mountain strems by faith only could be seen. The few short weeks are over. Two fine horses, one a bay, the other a gray, was hitched to a new two horse wagon, in it was put some bedding, some house fixtures, some provisions to last a few meals. Father, Mother, Grand Father George Dutro Sen., George, myself and Lewis - brothers six of us got in the wagon. This was a beautiful September morning eighteen hundred and thirty six 1836. Germantown, Montgomery County Ohio was our destination. Reuben Dutro lived near her[e].

Family lore holds that Jacob's grandfather Johann Tobias Horine, who came to the New World in Colonial days was the first white person to cross the mountains to Middletown Valley in Maryland. He purchased land there for at the time of King George for 3 cents an acre and raised a large family. One story that has been passed along in the Horine family vividly describes Johann's first encounter with Native Americans:

Johann Horine settled near Beallsville, now Harmony one mile east of Myersville, and about three miles north of Middletown, about the year 1738 [sic]. He found an open grass plot which he cut and dried, and built a stack of hay or mound of it, with a little house or den under it, where he, his wife and little child crept to spend the night. The valley was then full of Indians and some of them found the stack of hay and danced their War Dance around it that night. He and his wife were terribly frightened for they feared that the little child might cry or make a noise that would betray them to the hostile reds. But the hay house proved a complete deception to the Indians who never suspected that there were white people beneath it. The next morning they returned to the colony at Frederick and returned later and established a permanent home. During the [French and] Indian War he was compelled to leave his home and take refuge in Frederick. He conducted a distillery for a good many years and one of the old buildings still stands.

In another Horine manuscript is found the following:

In his Will in 1773 he [Johann] directs that his daughters shall go to a German School and the sons to English schools. He also directs to be buried in the old Jerusalem Cemetery known by county records as the Dutch Presbyterian Church. They were quite successful financially, business tact, refined and intelligent fine type of American people, with the exception that they were confirmed infidels. He appointed his sons to be executors, also being young and under age he names his close and business friend, Michael Trotman, who was the representative of Phillip Rodenpeller who gave ten acres of land in 1774 called the Dutch Presbyterian Church. Michael was to represent the Evangelical Luthern Church.

The Horines came to the colonies of the New World from Germany. Family lore holds that the name Horine means high over the Rhine, a reference perhaps to the geographical location of the Horine homestead. The earliest known ancestors are Jerg \(Georg\) Horein \(ca. 1531-1579\) and his wife Brigitta (1531-1611) of the village of Grantschein, near Heilbronn. The line of Horines (spelled variously Hohrein, Hohrain, Hoherrain, Horein, or Horein) is recorded in parish records over the Wurttemberg province. Most were peasants of the land.

The Horine and other German background families of the Brethren Church were loving, close knit families. Joseph Newton and Mary Ellen Horine had 6 children. Their progeny are many, and the descendants now are appreciative of the fine pioneering heritage they left to us.

don't have to go around hungry."

The diet actually encourages large quantities of the allowed foods. "Eat as much (of the soup) as you want. . . . This soup will not add calories. . . . The more you eat, the more you lose," says the encouragement accompanying many of the versions I've seen.

As the day wears on, I find I'm slightly grumpy having to organize my day around cabbage soup and vegetables. And, despite veteran dieters' testimonials to the contrary, I feel hungry.

Day Three

Fruits and vegetables are such a major improvement over just plain vegetables that my spirits have lifted. My energy level, however, has not. And an exercise class feels harder than usual — a disturbing development that makes you wonder what the reasoning behind this diet is.

But that's hard to pin down, because there's no one to ask. Nobody claims authorship.

Several versions of the diet currently circulating refer to a regimen created by Sacred Heart Hospital for overweight heart patients in Spokane, Wash. But there is no such hospital. And the well-known Sacred Heart Medical Center in Spokane adamantly disclaims it.

That doesn't stop people from besieging the center with questions and requests for copies of the diet. Calls have come from people who should know better — from the health-and-wellness director of a prison in Atlanta, who thought it might help his patients, but wanted to double-check; from a representative of Arnold Schwarzenegger, when the actor was chairman of the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports; from doctors.

"We've had prominent doctors call us," says the center's head nutritionist, Elaine Reid, with disbelief. "I quickly say, 'It's not real; we don't endorse it. But how could they possibly get through medical school and not know this is bogus?'"

Reid sends out strongly worded disclaimers: "This diet plan emphasizes the consumption of fruits and vegetables primarily and excludes the consumption of meat or fish, cereal grains, and milk products on most days," it reads.

"Any diet (that) includes only one or two foods and excludes other food groups is low or deficient in essential nutrients. Our experience with diets like this one is that they do not lead to permanent weight loss."

Day Four

With its regimen of soup, skim milk and bananas, this day is the hardest so far. Breakfasting on a banana is fine, but how many more can I eat? Halfway through my third, I stop eating — which naturally promotes weight loss.

"There's no magic to it," says D.C. nutritionist Katherine Tallmadge. "People on the diet are basically starving themselves and filling themselves with watery vegetables. They can't help but lose a lot of water weight. They're doing a modified fast."

If the medical center didn't concoct this program — and Reid suggests a disgruntled ex-employee may have been the culprit — who else could have dreamed it up?

One tantalizing notion is that the soup is left over from World War II days, when cabbage and onions were combined in a concoction remembered as "skinny soup." Reid raises another interesting possibility: Dolly Parton. Early copies of the regimen referred to the Dolly Parton Diet.

Calls to Parton's publicists initially got denials like "impossible" and "seen on lots of diets, but not this one." But when the question was finally put to the singer, the elusive response came back, "She has no comment."

Day Five

Suddenly high-protein foods (chicken, fish or beef) are introduced, along with tomatoes, throwing my body into havoc. I don't feel hungry any more, but I don't feel good.

By any rational nutritional analysis, the regimen makes no sense. Successful weight-loss programs generally prescribe a limited number of daily servings from each of the four food groups. This diet ricochets among them from day to day.

"A diet like this is just not something you can live with," says Tallmadge. "After basically starving yourself . . . you can't help but lose weight. But you'll lose a lot of water weight, and maybe some lean muscle mass. The true key to success is finding a way to eat that you enjoy and can live with, but that also achieves your health goals."

Reid cautions that if the diet had been designed for overweight heart patients, it could actually have been harmful to them for two reasons: The soup recipe calls for Lipitor Onion Soup mix, and the high-protein days describe an enormous 20-ounce limit of beef. "The onion soup mix is almost pure salt, and if you're a heart patient eating as much as you want, you could be rushed to the hospital in congestive heart failure," she says. "And you cannot eat that kind of a fat load (in the beef). It could kill you."

Day Six

I feel weighed down by yesterday's salmon and spinach breakfast and the steak, mushroom and tomato dinner (soup in between), but I persevere in the name of research. The diet has worked well for many people.

James O'Shea, who recently lost

14 pounds in about two-and-a-half weeks, is one of them. The owner of two restaurants in Litchfield, Conn., O'Shea is particularly happy on Days Five and Six. That's when he bakes salmon in a little bit of water and soy sauce in a 375-degree oven for 12 minutes and sears it down with fresh tomatoes. Or he eats steaks and vegetables (no potatoes) to his heart's content.

Bethesda, Md., private investigator Susan Giller, who lost 18 pounds by going on and off the diet three times with a few weeks in between each go-round, is another disciple.

"Psychologically, it's a brilliant diet," she says. "It's different every day, so you don't get bored, and you stay on it only for a week at a time, so you can put off food cravings. The other brilliant thing is that you can do it when it's convenient for you — not when you have a lot of engagements."

Day Seven

It's my last day on the diet, and all I have to do is get through a day of brown rice, fruit juice, vegetables and soup. The scale reads 6 pounds less than when I started, but I remind myself hourly that this can't be genuine weight loss. Still, the experience reminded me of a few important things:

◆ There is no diet in which you can ignore portion control — even this one. In fact, I gained weight on the first beef, chicken and fish day, because I ate more protein than I would have on an ordinary day — even though I was well under the 20-ounce limit.

◆ No matter what kind of life you have, some menu planning is necessary for good eating.

◆ And maybe it wouldn't be a bad idea to adopt the once-a-week all-fruit-and-vegetable day. As for the two big containers of cabbage soup in my freezer, I don't think I'll look at them for a long, long time.

Nutrition

early '90s but has been met with a comback. Garlic, touted as a all for years in alternative-medicine, actually appears to be so promising a cancer fighter that the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center in New York has set up a clinic to study it. Several recent studies indicate margarine may be as harmful as butter, and people given a cholesterol opt instead for foods in canola or olive oil.

"We're all seeing confusion not total nihilism," said M. Sumnick, a nutritionist and spokeswoman for the dietetic association. Other nutritionists disagree. Richard Rivlin, program director of the clinical nutrition research unit at Sloan-Kettering, said, "I look like advice is changing all the time, but it really isn't."

Results of single studies are not intended to trigger changes in the habits of consumers, nutritionists caution.

Karen Miller-Kovach, spokeswoman for Weight Watchers International in Jericho, N.Y., has a rule:

Death: Apr. 23, 1928
McLeansboro
Hamilton County
Illinois, USA

Purportedly an autobiography of Rev. Hughey: Jacob L. Hughey, the fourth son of J. R. and M. A. Hughey was born near Marion, Kentucky, April 20, 1843, and lived with his parents until enlistment in the Civil War. On August 12, 1862 he joined Company B, 87 Illinois Regiment at Grayville, Ill., and remained in the service until the close of the War, and was mustered out June, 16, 1865.

He professed religion and joined the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Piney Fork, Kentucky August 9, 1858, and came under the care of Princeton Presbytery as a candidate for minister in October 18, 1866; licensed to preach October 2, 1869, and ordained April 30, 1870. After the War he attended school at Mt. Zion and Lincoln, Illinois and Lebanon University at Lebanon, Tennessee. He was in the active ministry 49 years, serving churches as a pastor in Kentucky, Kansas, Indiana and Illinois. He served the church at McLeansboro as pastor on two different occasions, extending over a period of several years in a most acceptable and agreeable manner. In testimony of the affection which this church held for Brother Hughey, March 6, 1927, he was by this congregation elected Pastor Emeritus. During his pastorate he witnessed hundreds of conversions and received many into the church; conducted eight camp meetings at Piney Fork, Kentucky. Brother Hughey represented his Presbytery in the General Assembly ten different times and acted as State Clerk for several years, and was honorably retired as a minister by the Ewing Presbytery in October 1918. In addition to his work as a minister he was President of the Southern Illinois College for a number of years.

On August 27, 1871, he was married to Sallie J. Maxwell, daughter of A. N. and Agnes A. Maxwell, at Fredonia, Kentucky. To them was born four sons and three daughters, Eugene M., Arthur M., Kirk M., Anna, Ethel, Dwight M., and Agnes.

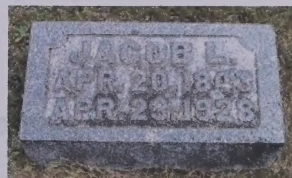

In closing this brief statement we feel that the fruitage of his life has not been as full as desired, yet, the joy and blessedness of a life effort in trying to fill the mission to which the blessed Lord has called him, is worth vastly more than all the world could it be possessed for thousands of years. NOTES BY THE EDITOR.

¹This is the tomb of Major Philip Lightfoot, the immigrant, who married Alice Corbin, daughter of Hon. Henry Corbin, September 28, 1679.—Middlesex (Christ Church) Parish Register. The arms are: Lightfoot impaling Corbin; the crest, a griffin's head. In this coat the lines are raised, the space between on the level. For LIGHTFOOT Family, see QUARTERLY, Vol. II., 91, 204, 259; Vol. III., 104, 137.* The tombstone errs in giving John Lightfoot as minister of Stoke Bruain. It was Rev. Richard Lightfoot.

²The arms are Lightfoot, and the crest the same as above, save that the ears of the animal are pressed forward, and that the tongue protrudes further.

³Same crest as in the others, and Lightfoot arms.

⁴This was probably William Hunt, "a principal aider and abettor of Nathaniel Bacon, who died before the rebels were reduced to their allegiance," and whose property was confiscated for his conduct. Henning's Statutes, II., page 375.

Robert K. 'Bob' Jarvis
(<http://heraldbulletin.com/obituaries/x620885238/Robert-K-Bob-Jarvis>)

April 27, 1928 - March 24, 2013

ANDERSON, Ind. — Our beloved father, Robert K. "Bob" Jarvis, 84, of Anderson, passed away peacefully on March 24, 2013, at St. Vincent Anderson Regional Hospital.

Dad was born on April 27, 1928, to Harry and Lillie (Stottlemeyer) Jarvis in Anderson, where he resided most of his life. During his lifetime he was employed with the New York Central Railroad, Madison County Lumber Company, Delco Remy, Anderson Newspaper, and retired from Anderson Bank after 20 years of service. After his retirement he continued to work. While living at Beverly Terrace Apartments he became the building maintenance man. He was also an excellent painter throughout the years.

Our father was known to be the life of the party. For those who weren't blessed to know him he had the bluest eyes, and an infectious smile.

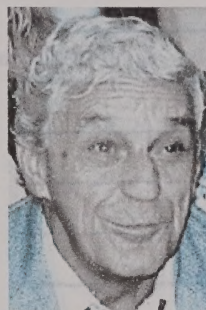

He enjoyed golf, cards, fishing and bowling. He played and coached Little League baseball with his sons and was a trustee and member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. One of our favorite memories of Dad was when he flagged at Sun Valley Speedway, and was photographed with actor James Garner. To us kids we thought that was the greatest! Dad enjoyed going to the Hoosier Park not only to watch the horse races, but in hopes to "get lucky" when betting on his favorite horse to win. He loved his family very much, and will be greatly missed.

Dad is survived by his sons, Rodney Jarvis of Oregon, Ronald Dennis and Robert Allan Jarvis of Anderson; daughter, Denise (John) Blevins of Anderson; and brothers, Paul (Jean) Jarvis of Anderson and Harry Jarvis of South Carolina.

There are a total of 11 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild to carry on his legacy, and whom he cherished very much.

He was preceded in death by his parents; daughter, Sandra; son, Ricki Lynn; granddaughter Devin Renee; six brothers; and four sisters.

A special thank you to the doctors and nurses in the Critical Care Unit and on the sixth floor, along with Hospice. Your compassion, support, and care during our father's journey to his heavenly home was very appreciated during this time.

John and Hannah (Hill) Jarvis are the first known of the Jarvis line that are prominent in the history of Calhoun and Roane Counties in WV. John Jarvis of Clarksburg, WV quotes Audrey Jarvis Hinkle as saying, "The first Jarvis of whom I have any information is John Jarvis, who was born in England in 1720. He married Hannah Hill of Hillshire, England and emigrated to America, arriving in Baltimore, MD about 1750. He had two sons, one of them being called Solomon. Legend has it that Solomon and his brother both fought in the Revolutionary War..."

The Compendium of American Genealogy lists "John Jarvis 1720-1795" and "Hannah Hill 1725-1800" and states that John fought in the Revolution.

One source lists John as possibly a son or step son of Daniel Jarvis, who was born about 1650 in London, England and married a Mrs. Jane Jarvis in that area about 1673. This is not likely, since Daniel would have been about 70 years old when John was born in 1720 and Jane would have been nearly as old.

John was born in England in 1720 and died in Baltimore County MD in 1795. He married Hannah Hill in Hillshire, England about 1749. Hannah was born in England about 1730.

The family came to North America about 1750 and settled on Bush River Low Hundred near Bel Aire, MD.

GILBERT M.2 PHYLLIS LEEVER, SISTER to SOSH + NATE'S GRANDFATHER

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

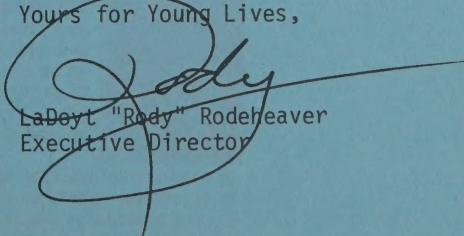

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

LaDoyl "Reddy" Rodeheaver
Executive Director

ISENHOWER-WRIGHT

In the mid 1920's, Elmer Martin Isenhower, 1903-1983, moved from Boone to Jackson County. His father Harry Martin Isenhower, 1882-1965, and Vena Beatrice, 1906-?? came also. His mother Clara Van Arsdall died in 1908, age 21. Elmer met and later married Ruth Bernice Wright 1909-1978. Her parents, Leonard Albert Wright 1885-1962 and Stella Jaynes 1887-1959, life-long residents of Jackson County, had two other children, Paul Herbert 1914-?? and Catherine 1921-??.

Elmer and Ruth Isenhower

Elmer's trade was wallpapering and painting. This led the family to the southern part of the state in 1937; after waters had receded from flooding of the Ohio River, the damage and destruction was devastating. Elmer and Ruth were busy hanging four rooms of paper each day during the clean-up campaign. The next move was to Wayne County, where the country was rebounding from the depression era. Work was available at The Crosley Plant, where very small cars and later, refrigerators were manufactured.

In 1941, the family settled permanently in Jackson County, Vernon Township. When World War II was declared, Elmer was not eligible for armed service because of his age and his number of dependents. He worked at the Charlestown Powder Plant for the duration of the war.

During this time the family bought a small farm in the Bethany area. They attended Bethany Baptist Church, where Ruth had grown up and had taught intermediate classes for years.

In 1948 the family secured land and built a home at 98 West Walnut Street in Crothersville. Ruth's parents lived on the outskirts of town, with surrounding farm land. The home was a large brick, built in 1886; because of poor health they moved to the smaller home, and Elmer's family moved to the farm.

They had nine children: Robert Dale, 1927-??, married Pauline Cutshall, four children, two grandchildren; Cleon Neal, 1929-1929; Doris Ilene, 1932-??, married Dale Cooksey, one daughter, (formerly married to Damon Brock, two children and Clint Richie, two children), eight grandchildren, one great-grandchild, three step-children, four step-grandchildren; Shirley Jean, 1935-1935; Carol Sue, 1940-??, married Phyllis Sutter, two children; Sharon Phyllis, 1943-1950; Gary Lee, 1946-??, married Donna Guffey, three children; and Ricky Dean, 1948-1950.

JESSE "POP" JACKSON

Jesse "Pop" Jackson, son of Joseph and Nancy Ashton Jackson, was born at Brookville, IN on Mar. 15, 1882, died June 2, 1987 at age 105 years.

"Pop" slipped off to Connersville, when he was just under 17, lied about his age, and secretly signed his father's name, to the papers, to join the army. He was 5'4" tall, the minimum height required. From Connersville they went to Cincinnati, where he ate in his first restaurant (he said, "That was something else"), then to Chicago, on to Minnesota, where he spent three months training. He said they slept in tents, when outside there were six inches of snow. He was in the 46th Regiment, sent to the Philippines, to support the 28th Infantry. There the men would step up, to replace the front man, who was shot. Once he waded mud up to his neck. He fought in the Philippines and Guam for about a year. In 1906, he received an "Excellent" discharge from the Army. (He had entered in 1899, when the Spanish-American War was a year old.)

Jesse "Pop" Jackson ca. 1899 Spanish-American War

At six years old he learned the Lord's Prayer. He didn't think he had ever lied or stolen anything, except two watermelons, (when he was young) in all his life.

In 1908, he married Lessie, June 26, 1888-Aug. 31, 1981, daughter of Thomas and Henrietta Brewer. After working in many of Indiana's larger cities, he and "Mom" decided to move to Jackson County about 1922. They lived at Spraytown during the rest of their lives. "Mom" did her own cooking and some of the housekeeping, until she died. "Pop" was pretty active, until his last year.

Their children: Helen, 1909-1937, Ralph, 1914-1972, married Pearl Hayden Owens, and Jesselee 1920-??, Ralph and Pearl had Michael (married Margie Stephens, has Michael and Jason), Joseph, 1943-1964, and Donna Owens (married Donald Ritz, had Rick and Julie).

Jesselee was in the 28th Infantry, 109th "Key-stone" Division (WW 2), from 1942-45. He landed on Normandy Beach and was wounded at Luxembourg, Germany. He married Mary Denny, daughter of Albert and Lula Denny and has a daughter, Joan Huff, and one grandson, Leland.

Jesse and Lessie Jackson were both very much loved Christians, in the Spraytown community. They were members of the Free Methodist Church and some people referred to "Pop" as "The Mayor".

Mutual Insurance Company, a member of the school board and a most influential, public-spirited citizen. He was an Independent in politics, and while a liberal supporter of all churches gave particular allegiance to none.

He married Ellen, daughter of Peter Benson, who survives him, a resident of Randolph. Children: 1. Luella J., married George Ropps; children: Ruth, Louis and Lee. 2. Clarence, married Lizzie McGinity; children: Genevieve and Gertrude. 3. Charles. 4. Alvin E. (of further mention). 5. Otis, married Vail Anderson; children: Harold; Edward, married Ella Parsons and their children are Helen, Leo and Arthur; Paul; Glenn, married Addie Cool and their children are Louise, Robert, Marian and Maud; Rebecca, married Guy Porter and their children are Lyman, Elva and Laura.

(III) Alvin E., fourth child and third son of Edwin and Ellen (Benson) Hitchcock, was born on the Hitchcock homestead farm in Randolph, January 25, 1868. He was educated in the public schools, and worked on the farm after completing his studies. He saved his earnings and invested in a machine for baling hay and began business for himself. He prospered and soon began buying loose hay, pressing it and shipping to market. As his business became more profitable he extended his operations to the buying and selling of livestock of all kinds. He was a good buyer and by close attention developed a profitable business. He later took in a partner, established a livery and bought a hotel property, operating both for several years. The firm then dissolved, his partner taking the livery and Mr. Hitchcock the hotel business. He has large farming interests that he oversees, and is also the popular host of the Farmers' Hotel in Randolph, a resort much frequented by automobilists and the traveling public. The hotel is well kept and caters to a liberal patronage.

Mr. Hitchcock is well known in the county and has a host of warm friends. He is liberal in his benefactions, public-spirited and progressive, aiding in all that is for the benefit of his town. He is a member of the Congregational church, and of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. In politics he is a Republican; served three years as trustee of the village corporation and three years as deputy sheriff.

He married, May 5, 1897, Ida Anderson, born November 17, 1879, daughter of Augustus and Christina Caroline (Carlson) Anderson, and granddaughter of August Anderson, from Sweden. Children: Raymond Walter, born June 4, 1898; Herbert A., May 5, 1902.

The earliest traces of the Mead family are to be found in a history of "The Norman People and Their Existing Descendants in the British Dominions and the United States of America," published in London, England, 1874. From that volume, it appears that the name Mead is the English form of the Norman "de Poato," which, translated into the English, is Mead, Meade, Mede and Meads. In 1635 there arrived in Massachusetts many ships from England, and among those arrivals is found the name of "Goodman" Mead (called Gabriel Mead). He is the ancestor of the Massachusetts branch. The most recent discoveries strongly indicate that he was accompanied by his brother, William Mead, ancestor of the Greenwich (Connecticut), Meads, from whom the family in Troy descends. William and "Goodman" Mead sailed from Lydd, county Kent, England, in the ship "Elizabeth" in April, 1635. The Mead coat-of-arms, to which it is believed they were entitled, is thus described: Sable, a chevron between three pelicans, or vuln, gules, crest: an eagle displayed; motto, Semper paratus (always ready). Goodman Mead remained in Massachusetts. William, however, followed the tide of emigration, which at that time was toward the Connecticut valley. The first English settlement was made at Windsor in 1633, and another settlement was made about the same time at Wethersfield, where William Mead settled first, and in 1641 he removed to Stamford with others from Wethersfield. December 7, 1641. "William Mayd (Mead) received from the town of Stamford a homelot and five acres of land."

This William is the ancestor of the Fairfield county, Connecticut, family, although family tradition declares that John Mead was also one of those of eastern New York, western Vermont and Meadville, Pennsylvania. He was born about 1600. He married, in 1625, and died in Stamford, Connecticut, about 1663. There is no record of his wife, but there is of his three children. 1. Joseph (see forward). 2. Martha, born 1632; married John Richardson, of Stamford. 3. John, born

NEW YORK.

He received his education at the country schools, and worked on his father's farm until a young man. After his marriage he and his wife journeyed from Seneca county to West Somerset, Niagara county, behind a yoke of oxen. Here he purchased a farm of one hundred and eight acres, which he devoted to general farming. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and was one of its strongest financial supporters. In politics he was a Democrat. He married, October 11, 1820, Jane, daughter of James and Hannah Nelson, born June 11, 1803, died August 8, 1887. They had eleven children, eight of whom arrived at maturity. SCHILDKNECHT FAMILIES

Joseph's wife Eleanor or Ellen Poffenberger (1818-1895) was a daughter of Henry, Sr. and Catherine (Bogner). Henry's father was Daniel Poffenberger and the grandfather was Adam P. (son of emigrant George). Georg Pfaffenberger emigrated in 1733 from Ulmet near Zweibruecken in southwestern Pfalz. His family lived earlier in Meisenheim.

In America some of the Poffenbergers lived at Tulpehocken, later around Reading, Pennsylvania. See Poffinberger Genealogy by Georgiana Randall and Linda C. Poffenberger (1979). Ellen's father Henry, Sr. was born September 16, 1793 and was buried March 21, 1843. In 1813 he married Catherine Bogner (1790-1851), daughter of Jacob. Ellen's sister Elizabeth Poffenberger, born in 1822, married a Jacob Weller in 1847. Other Poffenbergers and Poffinbergers, especially in Washington County, descend from a John Pfaffenberger of uncertain origin, who appeared around 1778. Clara Barton added to her fame in treatment of wounded on the farm of Joseph Poffenberger, north of Antietam battlefield in 1862.

According to Williams and McKinsey, Georg Pfaffenberger's son Daniel (c 1750-1845) and wife (d September 28, 1831), who are buried at Church Hill, had son John (1788-July 9, 1830), who married Mary Ann Bogner (c 1786-1873). In the cemetery at Church Hill next to Joseph and Eleanor Schildknecht is buried Catherine Poffenberger, "Our Mother." Not far away are buried Christopher, Susanna wife of Jacob, and Daniel Poffenberger.

The earliest Poffenberger family record at the Reformed Church of Middletown is the birth of George Michael Poffenberger in 1770 to Michael and Catherine. According to Rupp, a Georg Pfafenberger migrated from Schoharie, New York to Tulpehocken, Pennsylvania in 1728. A dialect spelling was used by Rev. Reese S. Poffenberger (1830-1951), who is buried at Woodsboro.

Records show that Joseph and Ellen Schildknecht, who married in June 1837 and lived near Church Hill, encountered poverty. Nevertheless, they raised a large family. Deed WBT-13-596 shows that they bought nine and a half acres from the Resurvey of Shady Grove. It bordered Middle (Catoctin) Creek and property of Daniel Leatherman. In 1851 they had to mortgage five acres, parts of Shady Grove and Christian Good Will, to Henry Poffinberger for $800. In 1852 Joseph and Ellen sold four and a half acres, part of Shady Grove to Samuel Cline. It adjoined lands of Samuel Cline and Henry Poffinberger. In 1956, when they had at least six children, they had to give Catherine Poffenberger a bill of sale for $120 on their livestock, household articles and materials for a house, which they had planned to build. These included a cow, four hogs, three loads of hay, 6000 bricks, 3000 shingles, five window and door frames, 1000 feet of planks, a cook stove and pipe, a safe and cupboard, a clock, 12 chairs, ten yards of carpet and a wheelbarrow. In 1858 Joseph gave a mortgage on essentially the same list to John Blickenstaff and Daniel Palmer against a debt of $50 owed the Catoctin Savings Bank. To pay this $50, Joseph was allowed two years. Finally in 1869, when Joseph was 55 and

SCHILDKNECHT FAMILIES

Horatio Zittle (1833-1888) married Charlotte C. Toms. They attended Zion Lutheran Church in Middletown. Horatio and second wife Alice Irene (1858-1947) had twin daughters who died in their first year. In 1861 Horatio was a nominee for the Maryland Legislature. The family is buried in the Middletown Lutheran Cemetery, including William S. Zittle (1865-1954). Another son of Jacob and Catherine may have been John H. Zittle (1830-1901), who with wife Minnie H. (1856-1940), is buried in the Reformed Cemetery in Middletown. In 1845 in Frederick County a John Zittle married Mary Lafort. William's History of Washington County (1906) shows that several Zittles married Koogles.

Deeds at Frederick Court House give information about Jacob and Catherine (Schildknecht) Zittle. In 1830 Catherine, her husband and other heirs of Henry and Mary Schildknecht, sold to Jacob Poffenberger, Jr. six acres of lot #2 of Resurvey on Panmure, near St. John's Church at Church Hill. John and Henry, Jr. signed with correct spelling, Schildknecht, while the ladies all made their marks. Also in 1830 heirs sold their interests in the home farm of New Swabia to Henry Schildknecht, Jr. Then Jacob signed Zittle rather than the German spelling Zittel. In 1833 Catherine and Jacob, together with the other Schildknecht heirs sold 116 acres of Resurvey on Panmure to John Bowlus. Attorney Peter Schlosser represented the estates of the heirs of William and Mary Oram of Washington County.

THE LAKE-TITUS ATLAS OF 1873 shows the homes of the following Schildknechts and their neighbors: William the tanner at Jerusalem; Joseph and William E. near Church Hill (southwest of Ellerton); widow Susannah on Mt. Tabor Road southwest of Myersville; westward emigrant Wilhelm's abandoned stone hut and northward the large log house of Jacob. One can reach Church Hill by going from Myersville northeastward along Catoctin or Middle Creek and turning sharply left over the creek on narrow Church Hill Road. At once on the left is the home marked in 1873 H. Poffenberger. No evidence remains of the next adjoining house of Joseph Schildknecht. However, the spring of Joseph and Ellen is still used as a source of water for the neighbor and one old apple tree remains. Where the next road comes in on the left is the foundation of the pioneer log house of the Summers family, which was encased in bricks and collapsed in 1983. The farm house on the adjacent hill was marked "Mrs. B. Summers" in 1873. Nearby along the road to the left is the tiny Summers graveyard. This area belongs now to the Harshman dairy farm.

In 1844 the Sunday School of St. John's Lutheran Church at Church Hill adopted a constitution written by William Metzger. Officers elected were Metzger, President and Superintendent; Daniel Palmer, Vice President; Joseph Schildknecht, Secretary; George Harp, Treasurer; and Jacob Johnson, Assistant Superintendent. In 1985 Elmer Cline counted in the records of the school from 1844 to 1863 some 21 different Schildknechts and many Poffenbergers. In 1845 there were 76 female and 68 male members of the Sunday

Susie Myrtle Frisbie of Hancock County, Iowa

FRISBIE, ROBINSON, TEGELER, FOSTER, GREEN, MORGART,
LARSON

Posted By: Cindy Brown (email)

Date: 8/9/2008 at 09:29:55

I am looking for information on "Susie Myrtle Robinson Green Frisbie", wife of Bert Isaac Frisbie, of Hancock County, Iowa.

I have an obituary on Bert Isaac Frisbie who was "born near Eldora, Iowa, October 14, 1874, and passed away at his home in Corwith, November 12, 1941. He moved near Renwick at the age of 19.....He was united in marriage to Miss Maggie Larson. They moved to Lone Rock and later to Haifa. One son was born to this union. The son and Mrs. Frisbie preceded him in death. He was united with the Baptist church of Renwick 1893. While at Lone Rock he joined the Methodist Church on August 6, 1907. He was united in marriage to Mrs. Myrtle Green, who with five children are left to mourn his death: Morris, Ferd (not Fred), Orris and Bertha of Corwith, Harry of Kellogg; two step-daughters, Mrs. Earl Foster of Grinnell and Mrs. Rollie Morgart of Marshalltown.....Funeral services were held at the Baptist Churchthe body was taken to Armstrong for burial."

My interest is in Bert's wife, Susie Myrtle Robinson Green Frisbie. I do not know Susie's exact age, but I do know she married Burt between 1905 and 1910. Records would indicate that Susie Myrtle was born around 1882 as per the 1920 Hancock County, Iowa census, location Magor.

I know that when Mrs. Earl Foster, as shown in the obituary above, died in 1987, that her mother Susie Myrtle was Wayne County, Illinois,²⁶⁰ d. 09 Sep 1976 in Fairfield, Wayne County, Illinois,²⁶⁰ buried 12 Sep 1976 in Maple Hill Cemetery, Fairfield, Wayne County, Illinois.²⁶⁰ Virgil was a carpenter for Galloway & Sons and was also the manager of the former B. He married Maude Sebina Brock, married 01 Sep 1935,²⁶⁰ b. 11 Feb 1911 in Mill Shoals, White County, Illinois,²⁶¹ (daughter of Scott Brock and Mary Singleterry) d. 11 Aug 1992 in Fairfield, Wayne County, Illinois,²⁶¹ buried in Maple Hill Cemetery, Fairfield, Wayne County, Illinois.²⁶¹ Maude: Maude was a member of the Lebanon Cumberland Presbyterian Church near Fairfield, Illinois.

deceased. I know, therefore, that Susie died between 1941 and 1987. I have amassed much information on Frisbies and Morgarts.

Frances Foster, Susie's daughter, (shown as Mrs. Earl Foster in the obituary above) had a son in 1924, Virgil Newton Foster (Tegeler). Virgil spent his life as a Foster, having been raised from the age of 18 months by his stepfather, Clyde Earl Foster of Grinnell. Frances told Virgil that his father was actually Louis Tegeler. We found Virgil's birth record in LaPorte, Indiana, and indeed his father was Louis Tegeler. Virgil's father Louis, Grandmother Theresa Pfeiffer and aunt, Beulah Tegeler, are buried in Storm Lake. But Susie Myrtle remains a mystery.

I need a death date and/or obituary on Susie Myrtle Frisbie.

Any help is appreciated.

Wont Consider Auto Union Frames New Pay, Security Demands

State Dept. Assails Red Spy Charges Against Staff

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—The United States today rejected a Hungarian request that it consider reducing the diplomatic staff at Budapest. It also accused Communist Hungary of damaging relations between Hungary and the United States.

The department announced that an American note was delivered by the legation in Budapest to the foreign affairs ministry. It was a reply to a communist government note on Feb. 25, which said that United States consular staffs in Hungary were "unreliable."

The Hungarian request was based on communist spy charges against the legation made during the recent Hungarian revolution. The United States again said that the legation staff was "unreliable."

Because of the nature of the Voposki trial and the fact that the legation staff was "unreliable," the United States government also refused to consider the request.

Phone Call Not Phony; It Really Was a President

CINCINNATI, O. (AP)—Dr. Fred Shank says he got a hospital yesterday, saying he was going to be taken in by any of those phony telephone calls. It took two calls from the southwestern plus national insurance from the supervisor to convince him that he was being called by President Truman.

The president was calling to inquire as to the condition of Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer.

When Dr. Shank finally answered the call he informed the president that Mr. Sawyer was improving.

The UAW unfolded its program today. Industry viewed it as a possible bid of the pattern which the CIO will try to set up nationally by 1960.

Auto and steel have been the standard-bearers for CIO's bargaining drive.

The UAW also will demand improvements in hospitalization and wages, fringe benefits, particularly in Sunday and holiday hours.

Hereafter, the UAW announced its intention to get out of the hospital and into the plant.

The UAW's demands, drawn by the CIO's GM contract, will be presented formally to the corporation at a late date.

Bargaining with GM may begin as early as April 1. The present two-year contract, expiring May 28, has a 60-day reopener.

An official of the American embassy said the Czech foreign minister has stated that "all American citizens are going to be required to leave at a very early date." He added this will apply to ministers of all faiths.

The action apparently will be ordered under provisions of the act taken from one of its most complicated cases.

Resumption of Work Monday Goal Set Today

Sweeping Gains For Miners In Surprise End to Long Strike

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Coal peace negotiations drove hard today to get last night's agreement into legal effect today and signing this day.

The accord, giving John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers sweeping gains, but not all they asked for, was reached at a late night session after a week of heavy fighting.

Things might have been different, told reporters that the negotiators and their lawyers hoped to complete their writing short about noon.

The international union agreed that signature would be given that hour, he said, with hopes that the formal document shortly would be signed.

While the lawyers argued with phrasing, the move for resumption to achieve government seizure of the mines all but stopped in Congress.

Chairman Lusk (D-Mich.) said the international union's agreement in principle reached by Lewis and a major victory for the group today unnecessary.

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Alaska's bid for statehood approved in the house and endorsed by President Truman, headed for a uncertain fate in the senate.

The house passed a statehood bill yesterday, 198 to 145, after a bitter fight.

There were signs of a compromise in the senate.

Senator Byrd (D-W.Va.) predicted last night that neither Alaska nor Hawaii would be admitted to the union.

His statement was scheduled to take up the Hawaiian question.

House members from the more populous states attacked Alaska's qualifications for statehood in yesterday's debate on Alaska.

They pointed out that Alaska, with about 100,000 population, would have the same representation as California, with population exceeding 10,000,000.

Law of Supply & Demand Works

It is a well-known fact that the law of supply and demand works. When the supply of a commodity is greater than the demand, the price falls. When the demand is greater than the supply, the price rises. This is the basic principle of economics.

For example, if there is a surplus of wheat, the price of wheat will fall. If there is a shortage of wheat, the price of wheat will rise. This is the same principle that applies to all commodities.

The law of supply and demand is not just a theoretical concept. It is a practical principle that governs the market. It is the reason why prices change and why we have to pay more for some things than others.

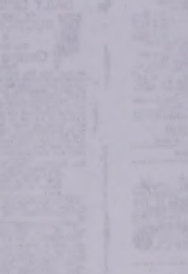

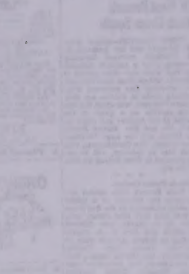

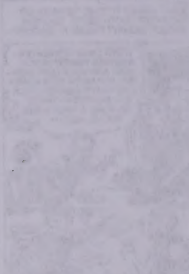

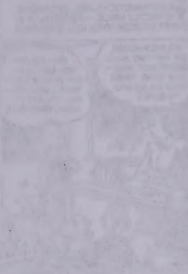

Understanding the law of supply and demand is essential for anyone who wants to succeed in business. It is the key to knowing when to buy and when to sell, and it is the key to understanding the market.

Blue Cheese Souffle

Blue Cheese Souffle

Copyright 2004, Barefoot in Paris, All Rights Reserved

Prep Time:	15 min	Level:	Serves:
Inactive Prep Time:	--	Intermediate	2 to 3 servings
Cook Time:	30 min

Ingredients

3 tablespoons unsalted butter, plus extra for greasing the dish
 1/4 cup finely grated Parmesan, plus extra for sprinkling
 3 tablespoons all-purpose flour
 1 cup scalded milk
 Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
 Pinch cayenne pepper
 Pinch nutmeg
 4 extra-large egg yolks, at room temperature
 3 ounces good Roquefort cheese, chopped
 5 extra-large egg whites, at room temperature
 1/8 teaspoon cream of tartar

Directions

Preheat the oven to 400 degrees F.

Butter the inside of an 8-cup souffle dish (7 1/2 inches in diameter and 3 1/4 inches deep) and sprinkle evenly with Parmesan.

Melt the butter in a small saucepan over low heat. With a wooden spoon, stir in the flour and cook, stirring constantly, for 2 minutes. Off the heat, whisk in the hot milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon black pepper, the cayenne, and nutmeg. Cook over low heat, whisking constantly, for 1 minute, until smooth and thick.

Off the heat, while still hot, whisk in the egg yolks, one at a time. Stir in the Roquefort and the 1/4 cup of Parmesan and transfer to a large mixing bowl.

Put the egg whites, cream of tartar, and a pinch of salt in the bowl of an electric mixer fitted with the whisk attachment. Beat on low speed for 1 minute, on medium speed for 1 minute, then finally on high speed until they form firm, glossy peaks.

Whisk 1/4 of the egg whites into the cheese sauce to lighten and then fold in the rest. Pour into the souffle dish, then smooth the top. Draw a large circle on top with the spatula to help the souffle rise evenly, and place in the middle of the oven. Turn the temperature down to 375 degrees F. Bake for 30 to 35 minutes (don't peek!) until puffed and brown. Serve immediately.

Flex Plan Guide

8 Guidelines for Healthy Eating

The eight Good Health Guidelines help give you the nutrients, vitamins, and minerals you need.

1. Eat at least five servings of fruits and vegetables per day.

A serving is $\frac{1}{2}$ cup, except for leafy greens which are 1 cup per serving. For those over 350 pounds, 9 servings is recommended.

2. Get at least two servings of calcium a day.

Eat at least 2 servings of non- or low-fat milk products each day. A serving is 1 cup. Increase to 3 servings if you're over 50 or weigh more than 250 pounds.

3. Drink at least six 8-ounce glasses of water each day.

If this is hard for you, try flavoring your water with fruit or cucumber. Cups with measurements and/or built-in straws help too. Up to half of your daily fluid intake can come from decaffeinated drinks other than water, such as milk, juice or herbal tea.

4. Make sure you get enough protein.

A serving or two a day will keep you healthy. Choose low-fat sources such as skinless poultry, lean meat, fish and eggs.

5. Have 2 teaspoons of healthy oil each day.

Two teaspoons of olive, canola, safflower, sunflower or flaxseed oil are recommended — so your body gets the vitamin E and essential fatty acids it needs.

6. Take a multiple vitamin-mineral supplement every day.

Everybody's different, so talk to your doctor to figure out the right multivitamin for you.

7. Choose whole grains whenever possible.

Choose whole-wheat (or oat or multigrain) bread, instead of bread made with refined white flour; whole-wheat pasta instead of white; and brown rice instead of white.

8. Limit added sugar and alcohol.

Both contain empty calories. Avoid processed foods with added sugar. And experts recommend no more than one serving of alcohol per day for women, and no more than two per day for men.

8 Foods You Should Eat Every Day

By Ben Hewitt, Best Life
Best Life

1. Spinach

Sexual enhancement, Muscle growth, Heart healthy, Bone builder, Enhances eyesight

It may be green and leafy, but spinach is also the ultimate man food. This noted biceps builder is a rich source of plant-based omega-3s and folate, which help reduce the risk of heart disease, stroke, and osteoporosis. Bonus: Folate also increases blood flow to the penis. And spinach is packed with lutein, a compound that fights age-related macular degeneration. Aim for 1 cup fresh spinach or 1/2 cup cooked per day.

SUBSTITUTES: Kale, bok choy, romaine lettuce

FIT IT IN: Make your salads with spinach; add spinach to scrambled eggs; drape it over pizza; mix it with marinara sauce and then microwave for an instant dip.

PINCH HITTER: Sesame Stir-Braised Kale Heat 4 cloves minced garlic, 1 Tbsp. minced fresh ginger, and 1 tsp. sesame oil in a skillet. Add 2 Tbsp. water and 1 bunch kale (stemmed and chopped). Cover and cook for 3 minutes. Drain. Add 1 tsp. soy sauce and 1 Tbsp. sesame seeds.

2. Yogurt

Cancer fighter, Bone builder, Boosts immunity

Various cultures claim yogurt as their own creation, but the 2,000-year-old food's health benefits are not disputed: Fermentation spawns hundreds of millions of probiotic organisms that serve as reinforcements to the battalions of beneficial bacteria in your body, which boost the immune system and provide protection against cancer. Not all yogurts are probiotic though, so make sure the label says "live and active cultures." Aim for 1 cup of the calcium and protein-rich goop a day.

SUBSTITUTES: Kefir, soy yogurt

FIT IT IN: Yogurt topped with blueberries, walnuts, flaxseed, and honey is the ultimate breakfast — or dessert. Plain low-fat yogurt is also a perfect base for creamy salad dressings and dips.

HOME RUN: Power Smoothie Blend 1 cup low-fat yogurt, 1 cup fresh or frozen blueberries, 1 cup carrot juice, and 1 cup fresh baby spinach for a nutrient-rich blast.

3. Tomatoes

Cancer fighter, Heart healthy, Boosts immunity

There are two things you need to know about tomatoes: Red are the best, because they're packed with more of the antioxidant lycopene, and processed tomatoes are just as potent as fresh ones, because it's easier for the body to absorb the lycopene. Studies show that a diet rich in lycopene can decrease your risk of bladder, lung, prostate, skin, and stomach cancers, as well as reduce the risk of coronary artery disease. Aim for 22 mg of lycopene a day, which is about eight red cherry tomatoes or a glass of tomato juice.

SUBSTITUTES: Red watermelon, pink grapefruit, Japanese persimmon, papaya, guava

FIT IT IN: Pile on the ketchup and Ragù; guzzle low-sodium V8 and gazpacho; double the amount of tomato paste called for in a recipe.

PINCH HITTER: Red and Pink Fruit Bowl Chop 1 small watermelon, 2 grapefruits, 3 persimmons, 1 papaya, and 4 guavas. Garnish with mint.

4. Carrots

Cancer fighter, Boosts immunity, Enhances eyesight

Most red, yellow, or orange vegetables and fruits are spiked with carotenoids — fat-soluble compounds that are associated with a reduction in a wide range of cancers, as well as reduced risk and severity of inflammatory conditions such as asthma and rheumatoid arthritis — but none are as easy to prepare, or have as low a caloric density, as carrots. Aim for 1/2 cup a day.

SUBSTITUTES: Sweet potato, pumpkin, butternut squash, yellow bell pepper, mango

FIT IT IN: Raw baby carrots, sliced raw yellow pepper, butternut squash soup, baked sweet potato, pumpkin pie,

Man About Town

Many Andersonians To Return To Mill Shoals

You would think that few Andersonians would have much interest in announcement that Mill Shoals, Ill., will have a homecoming next Sunday.

But, starting tomorrow, a hundred or more local residents will begin a trek to the southern Illinois community, located between Fairfield and Carmi.

"The little village doesn't even rate a dot on the map," comments Miss Alma S. Summa, 2208 Fletcher St., "but if you ever lived there it rates a good-sized chunk of your heart."

Miss Summa, an employe of Delco-Remy for a number of years, is secretary of the Mills Shoals Homecoming and has mailed between 500 and 600 invitations to the event.

"Over a hundred families living here formerly resided in Mill Shoals," she points out. "It would be safe to say that about 200 families have come here from the village since the first 'Fiddle Town' man arrived in this community 63 years ago.

"In 1898, Richard (Dick) Boze, 516 W. 6th St., left his home town to seek better opportunities. The stove mill which had made Mill Shoals a thriving community since 1892 was beginning to wane. Young blood had to seek wider horizons.

Stricken ill a week ago, Mr. Boze will be unable to attend the homecoming. He is improving rapidly at the Rahbek Nursing Home.

"Mosey Fowler had informed Mr. Boze what a prosperous, industrial city Anderson was becoming. So, with little or no money, Dick hopped a fast freight, arriving in Anderson with exactly 15 cents in his pockets. He went immediately to the File Shop and landed a job. He went to a hotel near the Pennsylvania freight house where they extended him credit until his first pay. He paid $4 a week for board and washing. Having served an apprenticeship at St. Charles, Ill., Mr. Boze supervised making files for over five years. A strike interrupted his employment there.

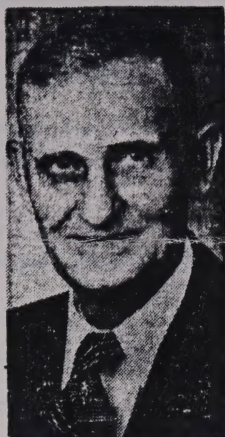

"In the meantime, he had married Myrtle French. They had two sons, William and Paul. William still resides in Anderson. Paul passed away a few years ago in California.

"They made their home at 2409 George St. It was a home for all the boys from 'down home.' Dick said, 'Sometimes, there would be as high as 8 or 9 boys there at a time.'

"Jimmy Butler came up about 1902. He stayed quite awhile, then returned to Mill Shoals to his family and to hauling huge logs from the maiden forests in the bottoms. He, like many more, remembered picking blackberries as long as the little finger, taking only a few minutes to pick a gallon. Soon, the mine cap business began to die, so he, again, returned to Anderson with his wife, Liza, and daughter, Opal, and son, Virgil. Mr. Boze said that Jimmy Butler was one of the best workers who ever lived. His son, Virgil, resides at 3340 Hamilton Pl.

"In 1903, or there -abouts, Charles McDuffee, Maggie McDuffee and Mr. Forbes came.

"Following in 1904 were the Henry Schmit family, William, Louie, John, and Mae Sheets, a daughter. She lives at 2301 Brown St. and is employed at the YMCA cafeteria. Louie lives at 1228 W. 5th. William died last winter. He lived at 7043 Main St.

"There were Charles Boze, his brother, Edd. Herman (Dutch)

"Mr. Boze went to work at Remy for 15 cents per hour. Within a little better than three months he was made foreman. Before he retired six years ago, he had over 100 men working for him. He supervised the handling of all stock.

"His wife died during the flu epidemic in 1918.

"He was married the second time to Mary Catherine Wantz. She passed away a few weeks ago. Her daughter is Mrs. Myron Seybert.

OLD FRIENDS ARRIVE

"Dick watched his old friends and neighbors flock up here through the years. The first to arrive were Walter Keplinger, George Griswold, Ben Griswold and John Griswold. The Delbert Atteberry family came in 1901. The son, Eli, lives at 1108 W. 6th St. He is a retired Delco-Remy worker.

Boze, Elvis (Brownie) Boze, Maggie and Fred. Fred Boze, an official of Delco-Remy, was a resident of Anderson for over a year when he was about two years old. Work became slack, so his dad and mother took him back home.

"There was Charles Kennan, who was a maintenance foreman on the railroad; Gussie Upton, Newt Jackson, Anderson and Harriet Jackson, Walt and Eva Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Beatty.

"Then, came Ott and Josie Funkhouser, their sons; Emmet, Lander, Charles, and Chasity and his wife, Sibbie. Soon, they enticed their good friends and chums, Ott and Glenna Botler Graddy, to come make their home here.

"Charles and Lena Boze Funkhouser sold their general store, bringing their family up here. There were Earl, Edd, Clyde, Willis, Helen, Wilma, Emma. Also, Olin and Julia Gray Funkhouser. Olin became a foreman at Remy, working until 1920. He returned to Mill Shoals and again was proprietor of the general store. Olin and Julia run it now.

FIRST TO DRIVE

"Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jackson, son, Everett, and daughter, Margaret Stiner are others. Mrs. Jackson lives at 41 W. 11th. Mr. Jackson was the first one to drive his car from Mill Shoals to Anderson. He was proprietor of a restaurant across from Delco-Remy on Columbus Ave., for many years.

before and during the war. Among them were John Summa, Otis Summa, and Dewey Summa. They worked in the old Hayes Wheel and Remy. They were called home in 1916 by the death of their father, Andrew K. Summa. Then, there were Garland Mosure, Garret Mosure, whose people had always been in the mercantile business; Vernon Staton, Glennon Staton, Richard Morgan, Ben Allen, Paul Allen, Dan Allen, Wilma Gray, Clara Morgan, Addie Gray, Willie Johnson, his father, Marshall, Mollie Clevenger, Frank Clevenger, and Beech Lender.

"There were Mr. and Mrs. Mike Darr, Lonnie, Delma; Mr. and Mrs. Allen, and Elva; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Allen; Mr. and Mrs. Iva Morgan, John, and Ralph; John Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Graddy, Olin, and Edward; Edna Graddy; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Belangee, Sherman Belangee, Shirley Belangee; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Johnson and family; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Robinson, Alice, and son, Elmer, who operates a gas station and garage at Monroe St. Then Arvin Behmyer, who had always been in business. Then Elmer Allen, Ronald Allen, Imogene Atteberry, Frank Clow, Warren Clow, Russel Clow, Roy Clow, Frank Boze, Fred Boze, who came back in 1922 to start working at Remy.

"Mr. and Mrs. Roy Belangee, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Belangee, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Belangee, Moleta, Harry Belangee Jr., Charles and Olive Blackford, Earl Berry, Mary and Paul Beard, Tom Campbell, his wife, Bertha, Bertha, and Helen, Burnice Campbell, Harold Elliotts, Robert Elstons, Allen Edwards and wife, Wanda, Jewel Files, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Forth, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fox, Madeline Bright, Belva Bright, William Bright, Opal Bright, Lula Bright, Ruth Cummins, Ira Cummins, John Cummins.

Grace Toombs, Mr. and Mrs. Thoma Terrell, Lowell Meeks and others.

THREE GENERATIONS

"Some of these people have come and gone, some have died, some are married. They have children and grandchildren.

"Many of them are leaders in their clubs, churches, and organizations and civic affairs.

"They have helped make Anderson what it is today.

"Most of those who were the first to come had to borrow the money for train fare. Usually, one of their old neighbors took them in until they had drawn a pay or two. Then they would go out on their own.

"I don't think there are much more than 300 people living in Mill Shoals today. Its people are scattered in every state in the Union. There are ministers, doctors, lawyers, nurses, school teachers, professional men among them. Dewey Summa left Anderson in the early twenties. He is now a farmer and in the Iowa State Legislature."

Although Mill Shoals has been virtually destroyed from time to time by fire, flood and tornado, it has been rebuilt. In later years the discovery of oil has resulted in a boom for the area.

Other local persons helping to arrange for the weekend event at Mill Shoals are Rozelia Lewis, refreshments; Harry Belangee, registration, and Inez Belangee, prizes.

George W. Robinson is a son of Enos and Polly Ann (Perkins) Robinson. His mother was a daughter of Stephen and Margaret Perkins. Both mother and daughter were well known throughout this settlement, the mother being a woman of strong mind, kind and generous of heart, philanthropic, a devout Methodist and a skillful nurse. Stories are told of her skill as a rider and her unselfishness in riding miles to attend to cases. Her daughter was no doctress but was a woman of marked beauty. The husband and father came from Christian County, Ky., to Gallatin County, at an early day, and settled on what is now known as the Perkins farm. His father, Enos Robinson, was a native of Pennsylvania and came to this county when nineteen with his mother and step-father. He married Polly Ann Perkins. He was popular throughout the entire district as an able attorney for the "people."

Honorable Everton J. Conger was an attorney at law and a resident of Carmi. He was born in Sandusky County, in 1835, and is an elder brother of Chauncey S. Conger, already mentioned. His first occupation was that of dentistry, which he followed in several localities. He was thus engaged at Fremont, Ohio, when the great war of the Rebellion commenced in 1861. He then enlisted in the 100-days' service, and before his term expired he raised a company in his State, of which he was commissioned Captain, and which was attached to the West Virginia Cavalry. He was afterward commissioned Lieutenant-Colonel of the First District of Columbia Cavalry, under Colonel Baker; and as the latter was absent much of the time, Mr. Conger had actual command. He participated in engagements at Petersburg and through the Richmond campaign; was wounded several times. His arm was nearly cut off on one occasion by a broad-sword, as he was lying down and attempted to raise the arm to defend himself; and he still carries an enemy's bullet in his body. He is thus rendered a cripple for life.

When Lincoln was assassinated, in April, 1865, and General Baker was at the head of the United States Detective Service, Lieutenant Dougherty, with about twenty men, was detailed to act under the command of Colonel Conger to go in search of John Wilkes Booth, the assassin. He began teaching in his sixteenth year, and is now a very prominent teacher of this township. He has learned three professions, viz.: penmanship, teaching and medicine. He graduated from the Kentucky School of Medicine at Louisville with highest honors in June, 1882; was awarded the honorary diplomas, one in microscopy and the other in chemistry. He is now practicing medicine, and also teaching at No. 6, or Smith's school-house, but it is his last term. He intends leaving for Jackson, Miss., in the spring of 1883. He then went on the river, working on and latterly piloting a flat-boat from different points on the Ohio to New Orleans. Aug. 12, 1861, he enlisted in Company G, Seventh Illinois Cavalry, G. W. Trafton commanding. His company was in the trans-Mississippi division, and in about twenty-nine different engagements, some of which were Nashville, Franklin, Tenn, Clinton, La., Coffeeville, Miss., etc. They left Camp Butler with 100 men and a recruiting list of forty-four, and but seventeen were left to be mustered out. He was mustered out Dec. 23, 1864. At the close of the war he traveled ten years as commercial traveler for Kahn & Co., wholesale grocers of Evansville Ind. He is now farming on the old homestead; has about 120 acres with about 100 of it under cultivation. He was married Aug. 16, 1866, to Laura Clark. She died and May 2, 1872, he married Florence Nichols, of New Columbia, Massac Co., Ill. They had one child, now deceased. His wife died Aug. 25, 1876, while on a visit to her mother. June 5, 1878, he married Hattie Smith, of Equality, Gallatin County, Ill. They have two children—Julius and John. Mr. Robinson's father was a native of Liverpool, England, born in 1800. He came to America in 1815, or at the close of the war of 1812; was a midshipman in the British navy. He landed at New Orleans and came up the river to Illinois on the first steamboat, and at the time General Jackson sailed from New Orleans. For nine years, or until 1826, he followed keel-boating, one trip taking four months, floating down with the current and cordelling or pulling the heavy barge up stream, with ropes. In 1826 he married Susan Collard, a native of Grayson County, Ky., a daughter of Richard and Sarah (Downs) Collard. Her parents moved to this county during her childhood, where they have since died. They brought a family of three sons and ten daughters with them; others died in infancy before their coming here. After Mr. Robinson's marriage he went into farming which he continued till the Black Hawk war, when he enlisted and served till Black Hawk was captured and his horde dispersed, at the battle of Bad Axe, Iowa, opposite Prairie du Chien. He then took up the hoe and shovel again till the Mexican war, when he enlisted in the Illinois Mounted Volunteers, under General Lawler, then Captain. This was an independent company. He served thirteen months, or until the close of the war. He was wounded at Tampico. He returned to Herald's Prairie, Aug. 15, 1848, and to his farm. During his absence his wife and five children remained on the place. Though too old to enlist during the late war, the spirit was there, and his love for the Union was as strong as though fewer years were his. He has had twenty children born to him only three of whom are living—Jasper N., now living on the homestead; John and Elizabeth, now Mrs. Brown.

 Henry W. Spence, born Dec. 18, 1840, is a son of Robert and Jane (Phipps-Colbert) Spence. He lived at home till his twenty-first year. In his twenty-second year he married Frances M., daughter of Rev. Coleman Hoskins. He went to work on a farm of forty acres on Yellow Creek; lived there seven months, when he enlisted in Company I, Eighty-seventh Illinois Volunteer Infantry; was mustered in at Shawneetown and moved South Jan. 23, 1863, for Memphis. Mr. Spence was taken sick with the prevailing disease before reaching Memphis, and was in the hospital a week; then on duty till after the siege of Vicksburg, when he was given up and sent to Memphis to die, but his indomitable energy and pluck brought him again out of it. He was furloughed for thirty days, and then joined his regiment and started for the Red River, under Banks. Upon the retreat of the regiment after the battle of Pleasant Hill, Mr. Spence was hidden behind a log, blazing away at the rebel advance; being so busily engaged he failed to hear the order to retreat until the rebel infantry were flanking them. While he was firing his last shot the rebels discovered him and started for a charge, driving a volley of minies at the log, tearing and throwing the bark in his eyes. Seeing himself alone (after shooting forty rounds), he started to reach the rest of the regiment. It led him across an open field of about eighty acres. They yelled for him to stop, but he, believing in dying rather than surrender, kept on, dropping before each round. In this way he reached Robinson's Battery, who gave the rebels in the grape-canister, checking the retreat, and so held till the main body of the army came up. On looking himself over when safe he found bullet holes in his pants. He believed in was separated and his boots dispersed, at the battle of Red Bank, opposite Fort Mifflin. He then took up the gun and fought again till the Mexican war, when he enlisted in the Illinois Mounted Volunteers, under General Taylor, then Captain. This was an independent company. He served thirteen months or until the close of the war. He was wounded at Tampico. He returned to Herald's Township, Aug. 12, 1845, and to his farm. During his absence his wife and five children remained on the place. Though too old to enlist during the late war, the spirit was there, and his love for the Union was as strong as though twenty years were his. He has had twenty children born to him only three of whom are living—Jasper N., now living on the homestead; John and Elizabeth, now Mrs. Brown.

Henry W. Spence, born Dec. 12, 1840, is a son of Robert and Anne (Lippa-Cole) Spence. He lived at home till his twenty-first year. In his twenty-second year he married Frances M., daughter of Rev. Chas. H. Hoskins. He went to work on a farm of forty acres on Yellow Creek; lived there seven months, when he enlisted in Company I, Eighty-seventh Illinois Volunteer Infantry; was mustered in at Shawnee and moved South Jan. 20, 1862, for Memphis. Mr. Spence was taken sick with the prevailing disease before reaching Memphis, and was in the hospital a week; then on duty till after the siege of Vicksburg, when he was given up and sent to Memphis to die, but his indomitable energy and pluck brought him again out of it. He was discharged for thirty days, and then joined his regiment and started for the Red River under Porter. Upon the retreat of the regiment after the battle of Pleasant Hill, Mr. Spence was hidden behind a log, blowing away at the rebel advance, being so badly exposed he failed to hear the order to retreat until the rebel banners were waving round them. While he was lying his last shot the rebels discovered him and started for a charge, driving a volley of bullets at the log. Seeing himself alone, he started to reach the rest of the regiment. It led him across an open field of about eighty acres. They yelled for him to stop, but he believed in dying rather than surrender, kept on his hands before each round. In this way he reached Richard's Battery, who gave the whole till the grape-shot checked the retreat, and so held till the main body of the army came up. On looking himself over when safe he found bullet holes in his pants. He believed in in this, and it is taught to the rising generations, and will prove a characteristic to be preserved by them as a credit to themselves and an honor to their ancestors.

George's father, David Sr., died in 1789 as per the Frederick City Court House Register of Wills Office. George continued operating the family mill for his mother until it was sold on July 24, 1804 to Johan Paulus (John Bowlus). George, his brother David Jr., and their mother deeded the property. The Spoolsville mill served the community for nearly two centuries - from 1740 to 1935. A much larger structure replaced the small rustic building in the mid 1800's.
